The Times prints a letter regarding the recent occurrence in Chester in which Mr. Gladstone's eye was injured. The writer of this letter asserts that the lady who threw the gingerbread was one of Mr. Gladstone's most ardent admirers, and that she has been so overwhelmed with grief at the result of her reckless zeal that it would be cruel to give her name and address.

FRANCE AND THE VATICAN.

...HE POPE DISCOURAGES ANY DISTINCTLY CATHOLIC PARTY.

ROME, July 1.—The commission of five Cardinals on French affairs have been in daily conference on recent events in France. Their ...esolutions have reference chiefly to the fam...ous declaration of the Royalist Right, oppos...ing the intervention of Rome in French poli...tics as at variance with the National tradi...tions. The Holy See has decided to repel from ...any side all attempts to constitute a purely ...Catholic political party. It accepts the meas...ures taken by MM. Piou, De Mun and ...Etienne St. Laury in preparing ...r the coming elections, and to ...eate a constitutional conservative ...publican party powerful enough to neu...alise radicalism and to consolidate the re...blics. The Pope has ... much importance to the opponents of the papal policy and to avoid exciting passion on so delicate a subject as the deliverance of the Pope on a doctrinal point. For the sake of policy and in order not to embarrass the support of his policy, the Pope has renounced all declarations in an encyclical which will appear soon and will pass over this burning theme.

The Vatican has been highly pleased with the programme of the Republican Right. It is considered as responding to the private intentions and desires of the Holy Father. A year ago M. Piou, now the recognized chief of this section, was in Rome and placed before the Pope the outlines of the programme. He told a correspondent, in coming from an audience, that "the Pope will go far—he is more Republican, more Democratic than we are." The Pope, in fact, from the first, has given his support to the formation of a Democratic and Republican Right. The programme of the Constitutional Right, as now formulated, is a faithful reproduction of his ideas. Hence the marked favor with which it has been received at the Vatican.

The stay of Archbishop Ireland in Paris is commented on here as having some connection with the application of the papal policy in France.

ENGLISH ELECTION.

LIBERALS ON THE AGGRESSIVE—GLADSTONE'S SPEECHES.

LONDON, July 1.—The general election opened to-day with the return without opposition of Lord Randolph Churchill, Conservative, from South Paddington. Lord Randolph Churchill has represented South Paddington in the Parliament just dissolved. The district is overwhelmingly Conservative and Unionist. In 1885 Lord Randolph had 2,731 votes 1,625 for Skinner, Liberal. In 1886, the Irish home rule issue having arisen, the Liberal vote dwindled to 709 for Hopps, Liberal, to 2,576 for Churchill, and this time the Liberals thought it best not to waste any money in contesting the seat, but to retain their funds for use in districts that promised better results for the Liberal party. Lord Randolph, who is known as "the candid friend," is not regarded as a desirable ally by many of the Conservatives, but he has a personal influence which they cannot ignore.

Mr. Gladstone's address in Edinburgh is the topic everywhere, and is eagerly perused by both parties. The Tories accuse Mr. Gladstone of raising a class issue, and of pandering to the popular prejudice against the rich and titled in order to gratify his personal ambition for power. The Liberals, on the other hand, argue that Mr. Gladstone has effectually spiked the guns of his adversaries and that he has answered completely the charge that there was something hidden in his scheme of home rule. They assert that his arraignment of the educated and upper classes is more than justified by the history of the country within the past fifty years, and that Mr. Gladstone has vindicated the right and the ability of the common people of Great Britain to control and direct the affairs of the nation. There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone has struck a most popular keynote. There is a tremendous rush to-day for his speech, and it is already being made ready in pamphlet form for distribution throughout the United Kingdom. The Liberals regard it as the platform of their campaign and will be guided by it everywhere in their appeals to the voters.

The enthusiasm of Mr. Gladstone's reception in Edinburgh is also contrasted by the Liberals with the display of popular antagonism that greeted the Conservative leader, Mr. Balfour, in Sheffield, and many of the Tories admit that the contrast is ominous. On the other hand, the Tories claim to derive consolation from the fact that they have nothing to lose in Edinburgh and that outside of the partial representation of Edinburgh University which returns one member along with St. Andrew's University, the whole Edinburgh representation is Liberal. The Tories point out that the multitude that greeted Mr. Gladstone spoke for a Liberal city and their enthusiasm did not mean the change of a seat. Notwithstanding these arguments, there is no doubt that the Liberals are greatly inspired by Mr. Gladstone's reception in Edinburgh.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

GOOD CROPS IN CUBA—BISMARCK AT MUNICH—BRIEFS.

HAVANA, July 1.—The exceptionally fine weather that has prevailed for five consecutive months has enabled planters, in spite of the adverse circumstances under which a majority of them have labored, to harvest the crop, which it is expected will amount to more than 900,000 tons, or nearly 100,000 tons more than that of last year. The drought however, which has been of such great benefit to the operating in the sugar houses has considerably delayed work in the fields and has so severely damaged the tender cane that it is feared its effects will be keenly felt next year.

It is rumored that the Western Railway and all its properties and appertenances have been sold to an English syndicate which will assume all running expenses.

Six lives were lost in the recent floods at Matanzas. The water covered the roofs of all the smallest establishments in and around the market place of the city, completely destroying the stands therein. In the north part of the city 300 houses were inundated. A large number of lighters and most of the fishing smacks and smaller boats in the harbor either foundered or were driven out to sea.

A SMALL RIOT.

MADRID, July 1.—A drunken sailors' row which occurred at San Sebastian, a seaport town on the Bay of Biscay, caused a small riot at that place. The sailors engaged were some of the crew of the German ship Bertha, who had been allowed shore liberty and got full. A quay watchman and several other townspeople who tried to restore peace were stabbed by the sailors. The civil guards turned out, but the men escaped to their ship. The German Consul promises that the offenders shall be arrested.

BISMARCK'S THANKS.

MUNICH, July 1.—The Allegemeine Zeitung prints a letter from Prince Bismarck, thanking all who so heartily welcomed him to Munich and saying it rejoiced his heart to find how largely he had gained the recognition and good will of fellow-citizens living beyond the immediate neighborhood of his own home. Prince Bismarck visits the brine baths at Kissengen daily. He is often bombarded with bouquets by admiring ladies. To-day a bouquet hit him in the eye, injuring it slightly.

SMALL CONCESSIONS.

TANGIERS, July 1.—The mission of Sir Charles Evan-Smith, the British Minister to Morocco, who a short time ago went to Fez to consult with the Sultan regarding British interests, has ended. The only concessions obtained by the Minister were for portable water in Tangiers and for the building of a public mart. The Sultan refused to decrease the export duty on cereals.

THIRD PARTY HOSTS

Delegates Gathering to the Omaha Convention.

GRESHAM THE FAVORITE, WITH WEAVER SECOND CHOICE.

Independence Day Enthusiasm to Be Made the Most Of—Personal Interviews—Novel Proposition by Single Tax Men—Tammany's Invitation to Cleveland—Campaign Notes.

OMAHA, Neb., July 1.—At 10 o'clock to-morrow the first national nominating convention of the Alliance-People's-Independent party will be formally convened in Omaha. The arrangements are to appoint all committees at the noon session to-morrow, listen to speeches in the evening from prominent members of the faith, adjourn till Monday at noon, and before the close of the Fourth of July adopt a platform, nominate a presidential ticket and adjourn permanently.

The idea of the leaders who fixed up the slate is to arouse popular enthusiasm among the granger class by appearing to identify the movement with the spirit commonly associated with the Declaration of American Independence. That the idea may be further carried out. There will be exactly 1,776 delegates entitled to participate in the convention. The first thing to be done after organizing will be the adoption of a resolution extending to Union and Confederate soldiers the freedom of the Convention Hall. Nearly all the delegates are in the city, and the remainder will arrive this evening and to-morrow morning. As expressed by members of the National Executive Committee, the party is really pleased with the platform of the Prohibitionists and assert that if fusion is desired a compromise can be readily effected.

Geo. F. Gaither of Alabama arrived to-day. Gaither is Chairman of the People's party State Executive Committee and a member of the National Committee. "Gresham is first choice of the Alabama delegation for the ticket," said he, "and Weaver second. Ben Terrell of Texas would be their choice for Vice, but as he has been nominated for Congress and they want him to represent them there they will favor Macanne for second place. The nomination of Cleveland has busted the solid South wide open. I am only one of 80,000 voters in my State who stand as I do on that point."

Samuel W. Williams, chairman of the Indiana delegation, arrived this morning. He declined to make any statement for publication, but in speaking of Judge Gresham he said every citizen of the Hoosier State has the highest regard for and the greatest confidence in the Judge. Said he: "I know him personally and I love him. Weaver also has a large following in our State. He is a favorite with the Alliance, and with the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association. I have heard but little of Vandervoort, but will state that one out of every twenty six citizens of Indiana is an old soldier, and that may be considered favorable to Vandervoort. There are some remarkable features about this convention. It is the first national convention of the new party and will be the largest political convention ever held. It will have 1,776 delegates and come nearer filling every chair than any ever held, and there will not be a Federal office holder entitled to a seat."

The indications are that every State in the Union will be represented by a full delegation. In one respect, the People's party convention differs very significantly from both the Republican and Democratic Conventions. It is to be a more representative gathering. So far, indeed, has this idea been carried that the convention will resemble a mammoth mass-meeting, more than a national convention. There will be many men of many minds, but the inharmonious scenes usually incidental to such a gathering will probably be absent on this occasion. This is due not so much to the fact that the platform in its essential features is already practically agreed upon as to the general determination that harmony must be secured in order that the new party may present a solid column on the doubtful States this fall. Only these broad cardinal principles upon which all the industrial organizations agree to be accepted as the basis of the platform, and upon these, together with a denunciation of the force bill, is the coming battle to be fought.

Among the arrivals early this morning was Gen. James B. Weaver of Iowa, who, next to Judge Gresham, is probably the man most prominently mentioned for the Presidency. Gov. Weaver himself maintains a discreet reserve as to his candidacy and says he is for Judge Gresham if the latter will accept. In the event of Gresham's declination, however, Weaver says he is in the hands of his party.

The reunion of the Blue and the Gray is to be one of the leading features of the convention, and every feeling or suggestion of sectionalism seems to be absolutely banished from the convention. The People's party leaders are making great capital out of the declaration that this is the only party in which the ex-Union and ex-Confederate veterans find an equal welcome, and the coming convention is expected to develop some stirring and patriotic scenes.

The last of the 8,000 seats ordered for the Independent Convention were placed in position at the Coliseum to-day and it was found that there was still room for nearly 1,000 more and accordingly arrangements were being made for the admission of that many more than has been supposed could be accommodated. Nearly all the woodwork of the great platform and the wall behind it is already covered with festoons of flags and bunting and the pillars are also being swathed in drapery of the national colors, and voluminous folds of red, white and blue almost hide from view the great arches that support the acres of roof. The appearance of the convention hall is a great surprise.

It could not have been better arranged had it been built with sole reference to this end. Many of those who were at Minneapolis and Chicago declare that it is better arranged than were the convention halls of those cities, and that the interior appearance is much more attractive.

DELEGATES EN ROUTE.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Three hundred delegates to the third party convention at Omaha stopped at the Sherman House to-day to refresh themselves on their long journey. They were principally from New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Michigan and Indiana. Among them were J. W. Hayes, A. W. Wright and John Devlin of the Executive Board of the Knights of Labor. Terrence V. Powderly, General Master Workman, K. of L., was expected, but missed a train at Scranton and will not arrive here until to-day. John Devlin of Detroit, a prominent Knight of Labor, said:

"The convention will be for the most part harmonious. Of course, there will be some dissensions and some pretty hot fights, but the party is a unit on its three great principles—no monopolies in land, Government ownership of railroads and that the Government shall alone have the right to issue money. The platform adopted at the St. Louis Convention will be adopted as the platform of the party, with very few minor changes. The rank and file of the party are for Gresham."

E. E. Pate of Port Orange, N. J., said that if Gresham would not accept the nomination the choice of the party would fall upon Gen. Weaver of Iowa.

GRESHAM'S ONLY OBJECTION.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 1.—H. E. Taubeneck, Chairman of the National Committee of the People's party, was ... nominee of the party for President he unhesitatingly said Judge Gresham. When reminded of the fact that the Judge had refused to accept the nomination he said:

"Oh, I know the newspapers say that, but I know better. Judge Gresham has only one objection to accepting the nomination, and that is the sub-treasury plank he expects will be put in its platform."

"Do you mean to say that in order to get him to accept the nomination the sub-treasury plank will be left out?"

"I mean to say that Judge Gresham has only one objection to accepting the nomination at the hands of the People's party and that is sub-treasury ideas, and I mean that Judge Gresham will be the nominee of the party. You may draw your own inferences."

STEWART'S ULTIMATUM.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Mr. Stewart said to-day that he had sent a special messenger to Omaha with a platform and the information for the third party convention that he would accept the nomination for President on that platform is incorrect. He said that Gen. A. J. Warner had gone there to look after the silver plank and that was all the foundation there was for the report.

BAD MANAGEMENT.

ANTI-LOTTERY PEOPLE LOSE THE FRUITS OF VICTORY.

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 1.—Through bad management, in a political sense, the victory of Foster and the anti-lottery faction is being frittered away. The defeated McEnery side engineered quietly and nicely and when it came to a caucus for circuit judges of the State Appellate Courts the McEnery men captured five out of six. Col. John S. Young, the chairman of the returning board, who virtually made Foster Governor, was defeated by E. W. Sulherlin, the defeated candidate for attorney-general. Col. R. P. Hunter, who was the aggressive leader of the Foster campaign was beaten by Judge W. F. Blackman. John M. Kennedy, who went over from the anti-lottery side to the McEnery faction, was nominated over several strong anti-lottery leaders. In Orleans Col. R. N. Ogden, a well-known lottery man, defeated Judge Frank McGloin, who was such an anti-lottery enthusiast that despite his position on the bench he organized hurrah clubs and led shouting columns through the city streets. Judge James M. Thompson, another McEnery man, was nominated over Col. John M. Stone. The Foster element only succeeded in saving one man, H. D. Smith, who is from the Governor's parish, St. Mary.

OBJECT LESSONS.

SINGLE TAX MEN PROPOSE A POLITICAL EXHIBIT.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 1.—The Single Tax Club of this city has decided to ask the World's Fair officials for the adoption of a system by which it is believed the American people can be best given a practical illustration of the workings of the tariff. To this end the following letter will be sent Director-General Davis:

"The Chicago Single Tax Club respectfully petitions and requests that on foreign exhibits of dutiable goods at the World's Fair, the selling price in the country from which the goods are exported, the transportation charges from point of origin to Chicago and the selling price in Chicago be stated separately so that visitors may be enlightened in reference to the incidents of our present system of tariff taxation, and find out who pays the duty. We conceive that neither political party can consistently oppose this, as the framer of the existing tariff confidently asserts as the faith of his party that the foreign exporter pays the tax, and the opposing party asserts with equal confidence that the American consumer bears the burden. It is respectfully submitted that the Exposition can confer no more important service to the American people than to aid in the solution of this vexed and most important question."

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMANSHIP.

NEITHER HARRITY NOR WHITNEY WILL ACCEPT THE PLACE.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 1.—In an interview with a reporter, William F. Harrity said last night that he was not only not a candidate for the chairmanship of the Democratic national convention, but would be compelled by reason of pressing business engagements to refuse the position if it were tendered to him.

"Your name is also connected with the Chairmanship of the National Campaign Committee?"

"I have no desire for a chairmanship, and am in no sense a candidate," said Mr. Harrity in reply, "but as a member of the National Committee I shall give all the service in my power to the success of Cleveland and Stevenson."

"Will Mr. Whitney be the next Chairman."

"In my judgment Mr. Whitney is the natural choice for the place. He is peculiarly fitted for the direction of National campaign work and his marvelous executive ability marks him as the one man above all others to take up the work.

"Tammany will be loyal to the ticket and Mr. Cleveland will be elected," was the conclusion to the interview.

William C. Whitney will not accept the Chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee.

"A great many persons have mentioned my name in connection with the Chairmanship of the National Committee," Mr. Whitney said yesterday, "but I will not take it under any circumstances."

"FARMER" SMITH

NOMINATED BY THE REPUBLICANS OF KANSAS FOR GOVERNOR.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 1.—A special to the Star from Topeka, Kan., says: A. W. Smith, or "Farmer" Smith as he is familiarly known, of McPherson, was this morning nominated on the fifth ballot by the Republican State Convention for Governor. There was no delay in calling the convention to order. During the night the Murdock, Smith and Morrill leaders had taken but little sleep and many of the delegates showed plainly that they had been industriously electioneered with. They had that "tired feeling" which follows a sleepless night, but every delegate bore an expectant look.

In the few hours intervening between the night adjournment and the morning session determined efforts were made by the Morrill men to concentrate the opposition to Smith upon the man from Brown County. The attempt failed. There were too many Murdock men who were for Smith for second choice. When the convention reconvened at 9 o'clock, Smith's forces were organized, aggressive and confident, while the opposition was tottering over the line. It was only a question of time when the break would come. On the first ballot, Smith showed a clear gain of 42 votes over the third and last ballot of the night session. This determined the issue. Everything was now for Smith. Candidates for other places who have been voting their counties on the fence and along the line saw the inevitable. The break came. Smith was nominated with a rush. The fiercely contested battle for the gubernatorial nomination ended in a triumphant victory for the agriculturist Smith. The fourth ballot resulted: Smith, 337; Morrill, 270; Murdock, 105; Riddle, 1; Wright, 7. The fifth ballot was Smith, 375; Morrill, 279; Murdock, 5; Wright, 5; Barker, 10.

Robert F. Moore of Butler County was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor on the third ballot.

POLITICAL DRIFT.

TAMMANY'S INVITATION TO CLEVELAND—CAMPAIGN NOTES.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Tammany Hall has invited ex-President Cleveland to take part in the annual Fourth of July pow wow, whic... the Fourth of July next the Tammany Society or Columbian Order will hold in Tammany Hall at 10 o'clock a. m., its celebration of the 116th anniversary of American Independence. The occasion is designed to be of exceptional significance and extended effect. We earnestly desire the favor of your personal presence and give you this urgent invitation to attend and address the meeting. Should your attendance be impossible, we would value an expression of your views appropriate to the 116th anniversary of our country's independence.

A similar invitation was forwarded to Senator Hill and other distinguished Democrats of the United States. Up to last evening Mr. Cleveland had not replied to the invitation.

EQUIVALENT TO ELECTION.

WARREN, O., July 1.—The Nineteenth District Republican Congressional Convention adjourned last night after the nomination of Stephen A. Northway of Ashtabula County. Northway received the required number of votes on the ninth ballot. His nomination is equivalent to an election as the Republicans have a majority of nearly ten thousand votes in the district. Northway succeeds Judge E. B. Taylor, who was elected as Gen. Garfield's successor twelve years ago.

TEMPERANCE CRUSADE.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., July 1.—Temperance circles are again being agitated into a fever heat in this place. Several meetings have lately been held and speeches denouncing the whisky traffic made. The matter culminated yesterday in a number of W. C. T. U. women visiting the different saloons and billiard halls and holding religious services in each. They were courteously received at each place and were greeted by large audiences. What effect this movement will have remains to be seen, but the wets seem to be in the majority just at present. The Republican branch of the W. C. T. U. had charge of the proceedings.

OUR SOUTHERN NEIGHBORS.

Rebellion in Brazil—Desperate Street Encounter—Notes.

RIO JANERIO, July 1.—It is impossible to ascertain the the real situation in the disturbed State of Rio Grande do Sul. All telegrams are delayed and newspapers have been suppressed. Gen. Castilho's party is dominant and is gathering forces to attack Bage, where it is reported Gen. Tavares has under his command 5,000 soldiers. Porto Alegre was much damaged by last week's bombardment. The gunboats there yielded to the federal government, which favors Gen. Castilho.

There was a desperate battle in Viamao, which is twelve miles east and south of Porto Alegre, on a lake of the same name as the town. After three hours' heavy fighting the Castilhos were defeated. The Federal troops escaped with little loss, but forty-eight of the Castilhos troops were killed in the battle. Among them killed is Queros, chief of the Republicans.

There was also a battle between the contending forces, near Bagonal in the southern part of the State. In this engagement the Castilhos forces were successful. Col. Gomez was commanding and routed the federals. The cavalry lost all of their horses which fell into the hands of the Castilhos troops.

DISTURBANCE AT MARTINIQUE.

MARTINIQUE, West Indies, July 1.—The recent municipal elections here created great excitement and resulted in one murder and probably fatally stabbing of another man. The rival leaders in the election disturbance were St. Yves and Nicoll. They met in the street, and after an angry dispute knives were drawn. They fought for a long time, cutting each other viciously. Nicoll finally drove his knife into St. Yves' stomach, and the latter died almost immediately. Before receiving his death wound St. Yves plunged his knife into Nicoll's breast. The latter fought with desperation after the injury, but fell exhausted to the street after fatally stabbing his opponent. He was removed to his house and is now in a critical condition. It is thought he cannot live. Many of the leaders of both parties have been arrested and are now in jail.

A DUEL DATED.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 1.—Two prominent Generals of the Mexican army have been involved in a dispute so far that nothing but a duel will settle their differences. The quarrel grew out of the mock battle which was fought some weeks ago in the vicinity of the capital by a large body of Mexican troops in the presence of President Diaz and a vast concourse of visitors. One of the Generals, Sostensz Rocha, a distinguished officer now on the retired list, published a series of articles in El Combate, a paper devoted to military affairs, criticising the maneuvers severely from a strategic and scientific standpoint. These attacks were not relished by Gen. Gasper Sanchez Ocho, commanding the body of troops which acted on the offensive in the engagement, and he made a bitter retort, insinuating that his detractor was inspired by jealousy and other base motives in criticising him. This was considered in the light of a personal insult and a challenge was sent and accepted.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Opinion in Garrett vs. Kansas City Coal Mining Co.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 1.—An opinion of importance to the bar was handed down this morning in the Supreme Court by Judge MacFarlane. It was in the case of Lewis C. Garrett vs. The Kansas City Coal Mining Co., and was on a motion filed by respondent suggesting insufficiency of the abstract of the record filed by appellant under rule 13, and insisted that the appeal should be dismissed or the judgment affirmed, as of a total failure to comply with said rule. This required an interpretation of the rule, and in doing so the Court said: "The rule was intended to relieve the court of the necessity of having to go through a voluminous record in order to ascertain what it contained. The rule requires the abstract to contain "so much of the record as is necessary to a full and complete understanding of all the questions presented to this court for decision." Any lawyer ought to know in each case what is required. One error assigned in this case, indeed, about all the question there is in the case, is whether or not the evidence was sufficient to justify the decree. It is very clear that for a full understanding of that question a complete abstract of the evidence should have been given. Appellants insist that they have done so. We are not able to decide between them without a comparison of the evidence of each witness with that given in the abstract. Such a comparison would render the rule practically useless."

Then the Court says in substance that if an abstract is filed, but the same is deemed insufficient under the rule by the other party, said party "should show not the insufficiency of the abstract, but in what the insufficiency consists." If defective, "the fact should be distinctly pointed out" and "a reference to the pages both of the abstract and record should be given." A motion charging generally insufficiency in the abstract but failing to call attention specifically will not be entertained. In summing up the court says: "We cannot pass upon the insufficiency of the abstract until its alleged defects are specifically pointed out."

GEN. JOHN BIDWELL

The Californian Chosen as Prohibition's Leader.

DR. J. B. CRANFILL OF TEXAS FOR THE SECOND PLACE.

Both Nominations Made Unanimous—An All-Night Session of the Cincinnati Convention—The Color Line Wiped Out—Everybody Thanked in the Usual Resolutions—Adjourned Sine Die.

CINCINNATI, O., July 1.—Ex-Gov. St. John of Kansas, at the request of the California delegation, was given the floor first at the night session of the National Prohibition Convention yesterday to place before the convention the name of Gen. John Bidwell of California. St. John assailed the circulation of the unsigned dodgers in the convention attacking Gen. Bidwell's record, which he reviewed in complimentary terms, stating that Bidwell was in the field to stay until November.

John Hipp, on behalf of Colorado, seconded Bidwell's nomination. Idaho sought to yield place to one of Demorest's Eastern supports for a nominating speech, but was ruled out of order.

Dr. J. G. Evans of Illinois was expected to nominate David McCulloch, but stated that Illinois' favorite son had retired, and Dr. Evans seconded Bidwell's nomination. Iowa and Kentucky, Maine and Michigan also seconded the nomination.

Wolfenbarger of Nebraska said Nebraska wanted a President who will not travel from ocean to ocean with a drunkard's factory in his train; who will not serve five kinds of wine at public banquets, nor allow his name to be used in organs of his party in connection with advertisements of brands of whisky; who will not accept from a pampered millionaire a forty-three gallon barrel of Scotch whisky.

John Loyd Thomas of New York nominated W. Jennings Demorest of New York, and C. N. Grandison, a full black negro college professor of North Carolina, seconded the nomination for a part of his delegation.

L. B. Logan of Ohio put in nomination Gideon L. Stewart.

The total votes for the candidates were: Bidwell, 509; Demores, 139; Stewart, 179. Bascom of New York, who was not placed in nomination, received three votes from New York delegation. On motion of Georgia Gen. Bidwell's nomination was made unanimous.

At 2 o'clock this morning Dr. J. B. Cranfill of Texas was nominated for Vice-President. The names presented to the convention were Samuel Small of Georgia, William W. Satterlee of Minnesota, Joshua Levering of Maryland, J. B. Cranfill of Texas and Thomas R. Carskadon of West Virginia. Small withdrew before a vote was taken. The vote stood: Levering, 351; Cranfill, 416; Satterlee, 26; Carskadon, 19. The total number of votes cast was 818. Necessary to a choice, 407. Cranfill had enough to nominate him, and after a long argument on another question he was declared the nominee, and his nomination was made unanimous.

On motion of A. A. Stevens of Pennsylvania, the usual resolutions of thanks were adopted, the statement being made that the Prohibitionists had been better treated in Cincinnati than anywhere else.

The newspaper correspondents tendered a vote of thanks to Mr. Oscar B. Todhunter, Chairman of the Press Committee, for his courtesy.

Gen. Singleton offered a resolution expressing disapprobation of a certain hotel in refusing service to colored men. The resolution was howled down. After this action a colored delegate from Pennsylvania gave the party warning that it must stand with the colored men who stand by it. Mrs. Lucy Thurman of Michigan, a colored delegate, arose to a question of privilege, and said she had been insulted by hearing delegates near her calling members of her race "Niggers." Gen. Singleton's resolution was called up and adopted, and at 2:30 o'clock this morning, the convention adjourned sine die.

J. B. Cranfill is from Texas, and was a delegate to the convention. His nomination is largely due to the circulation of a story during the call of States to the effect that Levering is a member of the coffee combine. He has been the leader of the anti-liquor battle in Texas. He is about 45 years of age. He is editor of the Advance, prohibition and reform paper, also of the Texas Baptist Standard.

CRIMINAL NEWS.

Desperate Act of an Insane Wife—Crime Brevities.

MILAN, Tenn., July 1.—A horrible attempt at murder was made near Obion last night. For some time Mrs. William Emmons has been partially insane. Her husband came home last night and retired, leaving his wife sitting on the porch. She conceived an idea that he was going to kill her. She procured a rusty knife, slipped to the sleeping husband's bedside and deliberately cut his throat. He awakened from slumber, rose and grappled with the insane woman, but, faint from the loss of blood, received other stabs and fainted. The woman fled. Emmons will die.

RESEMBLE THE SCHREIDERS.

BERLIN, July 1.—Rosalie Buntrock and her lover, Fritz Erb, were tried at Magdeburg today for the murder of two girls named Kasten and Klage. Stockstill, one of the Taney County lyncher... who has been hiding in the hills on White River since the murder of Williams and the lynching of Bright, has volunteered to turn State's evidence, make a full confession and corroborate Friend's story if the State will grant him a pardon. The advisability of complying with Stockstill's request is being seriously considered, although the prosecution would rather convict him than any member of the lynching party, as the evidence against him is very strong. The lynchers now in jail are very much alarmed over the rumor that Stockstill will make a confession.

CHARGED WITH COUNTERFEITING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 1.—D. M. Howell, a well known resident of Stockton, Cal., who is charged with passing counterfeit money, had a preliminary examination before United States Commissioner Sawyer here. Evidence was given as to the delivery by express of a box of coin to Howell at Stockton, which box was found to contain $80 in 25-cent pieces, $30 in 50-cent pieces and $40 in $1 pieces. The coin was made in this city by a counterfeiting gang recently broken ... by secret service agents. Howell was ... answer before the United States C... ...

A RUSTLER IN JAIL.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 1.—Frank Smith, who has figured quite prominently in the late rustlers' troubles, arrived here yesterday. He is here to answer for himself and other rustlers sought to be restrained from working ranges ahead of regular round-ups. He has been openly charged with the murder of Wellman. This he denies and claims to be able to furnish a strong alibi. He was arrested last night on a general warrant. He is charged with conspiring to ruin the cattle business of Henry A. Blair of Chicago. Hearing was had before a commissioner and bail fixed at $4,000. Smith is in jail and will have a trial to-day.

ANDERSON IN DANGER.

MILAN, Tenn., July 1.—James Anderson left Wingo several weeks since, his daughter accusing him of accomplishing her ruin. He was captured in Ellis County, Tex., and returned here to answer the charge. The daughter states that her father compelled her to accede to his wishes on many occasions. She is 16 years of age. The people are excited, and Anderson is in danger of mob violence.

'AN'T GET THE PARK.

he Smith Heirs Have No Claims on the City.

/ASHINGTON SQUARE WAS SOLD OUTRIGHT BY ITS OWNER.

The City Hall Commissioner Expected the Suit Just Brought and Was Fortified by Counselor Bell—Poorly Lighted Suburbs Talk of Gasoline—Stealthy Opposition to the Milk Bill.

The heirs of Thomas Smith, the original owner of Wasnington Park, have filed suit in the United States Circuit Court against the city and W. F. Hopkins, the contractor for the new City Hall, intending to stop work on the building, recover damages and regain the park.

The heirs who enter the suit are Thos. F. Smith, George W. Smith, Ananthis Youngblut and Karl Youngblut, and Miss Anna Pope Smith, all of Kentucky, and Mrs. Philomena Sharned of New Jersey. They say that Mr. Smith sold the place to the city to be used solely for a public square, and that the city has forfeited its right to the park by building a City Hall in it. They claim that the park is worth $500,000, and that it has already been damaged to the extent of $50,000 by the work done on the new City Hall. They claim this sum and ask for the restoration of the park to them, and pending the suit they ask for an injunction to stop the work going on in the park.

This suit was anticipated when the City Hall Commission was framed, and before any work was done on the hall or a single contract was let, City Counselor Leverett Bell asked to inform the commission of the respective rights of the city and the heirs in the matter. Mr. Bell to-day gave the opinion to a reporter. It was made in 1889. A synopsis of the history of the park follows:

HOW THE PARK WAS BOUGHT.

The city bought Washington Square from . F. Smith and his wife," said Mr. Bell, deed dated Dec. 1, 1840. The city paid 0 in cash, which was the value of the operty at that time. The deed gives to the ty an absolute fee simple title. It has no ovision by which Thos. F. Smith and his ife obtain any interest in the property, nor s there any provision by which the property may in any event return to Thos. F. Smith or his heirs. The ordinance by which the purchase was authorized provides that upon the acquisition of the property it shall be held forever by the city as a public square, called Washington square, and that this provision should be inserted in the deed, which was accordingly done. The ordinance further provided that the park, when it became the property of the city, should be kept under such regulations as from time to time the Municipal Assembly should deem proper.

THE HEIRS HAVE NO CLAIM.

"It was competent for the Municipal Assembly to locate the new City Hall in Washington Square if it pleased. A project of this sort is not inconsistent with the use of the property as a public square. The park has an area of six acres, of which part may be covered by the City Hall, the rest being left undisturbed. The location of public buildings in public squares is a familiar practice in this country. In the present case the new city hall will not impair the use of Washington square by the public, but will rather improve such use. There is no suit that the heirs of Thomas Smith can maintain in the courts against the city to prevent the use of park for the new city hall, to recover damfrom the city or to recoverthe park. t, the ordinance locating the City Hall ashington Park is a proper regulation of operty by the Municipal Assembly and questioned. It is a matter for the f to determine, and is of no concern eirs of Thomas Smith."

"Well, I believe in an economical administration," said the speaker, "but I am not sure how far the economy should be extended with the departments as they are managed at present."

The St. Louis Browns to Quit.

Any rumor affecting the St. Louis Base Ball Club is sure to disturb the many cranks with which this community is infested. It is not pleasant service, therefore, for us to be obliged tosay that the St. Louis "Browns" are about to quit. They mean to quit using the impure Mississippi River drinking water in the future and use only Hygeia, clear as a crystal, sparkling as a diamond. Their big first baseman says that ever since he sent to the Hygeia Springs Co., at 212 North Commercial street, for a specially lined ten-gallon can that he has played good ball.

Plummer Got His Money.

HELENA, Mont., July 1.—The big suit of John W. Plummer against the Granite Mountain Mining Co., was decided in the United States Circuit Court here yesterday, the verdict being for Plummer for $30,000. Plummer, who was Superintendent of the Granite Mountain Mining Co., let a contract for 30,000 cords of wood and the company charged him with collusion with the parties from whom the wood was purchased and paying $1 a cord too much. Plummer gave up $37,000 on condition that the company would investigate and if his innocence were proven, refund the money. The investigation was not made and the money not being forthcoming Plummer sued for the amount paid.

CHEAP EXCURSIONS TO NEW YORK.

A Few Reasons Why the Wabash Is Known as "the Banner Route to the East."

1. Running via Toledo, Detroit and along the north shore of Lake Erie, it is the coolest and pleasantest route.

2. Its solid vestibuled trains make the fastest time over the smoothest track.

3. Passengers are not annoyed by smoke, dust or cinders.

4. It is the only line via Niagara Falls, all trains stopping to give passengers ample opportunity to view the great cataract.

5. It is the only line by which passengers can see the magnificent scenery of Niagara and the Hudson River and land at the Grand Central Station, the only railroad depot in New York City.

6. It will sell tickets as cheap as any other line and give as many privileges in the way of stop-overs, extensions of limit, etc., as any competitor.

7. Its train equipment is the finest in the country. No line can match its superb sleeping, dining and chair cars.

8. Wabash trains are always on time.

The St. Louis ticket offices are at the southeast corner of Broadway and Olive street and Union Depot. Be sure and call before buying tickets.

Sergeant Dawson In Trouble.

Alice Owens, the keeper of a notorious colored dive at 403 South Sixth street, had Police Sergeant Dawson arrested to-day on the charge of having pushed and struck her in a violent manner during the raid of the police on her establishment last Tuesday night. The Sergeant denies that he pushed the woman roughly or treated her in any manner unbecoming his position and the duty he had to perform in arresting her. The Owens woman was fined $10 and costs in the Court of Criminal Correction the other day for beating Miss Lulu Casey, a school teacher, and her husband, Bill Owens, who has served a couple of terms in the penitentiary.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

The Opinion Held in the East Concerning St. Louis Beer.

In speaking of St. Louis, E. G. Ashwood, a commercial traveler, said: "St. Louis deserves fame for many reasons, but in the East is now becoming most famous because of its beer. I myself am a devoted disciple of Gambrinus and have always maintained that St. Louis lager was the best in the world, but until last year not every one agreed with me. It appears now, however, that the best barkeepers in New York and other Eastern cities are coming over to my side. The demand for St. Louis beer in New York City is phenomenal. In spite of all the efforts of the local brewers it is being adopted everywhere. The Hoffman House bar recently put it on tap, and doubled the price. At the St. Denis, the Fifth Avenue and other hotels, the same state of affairs exists, and at nearly all the high-class barrooms it is for sale and conspicuously advertised. I was talking with the proprietor of several summer resorts, and he informed me that he had given large orders to several St. Louis brewers, and would serve their beer alone during the summer. He had never done this before, but last year found that his customers demanded it. St. Louis lager is fast attaining the reputation it deserves as the best in the world."

THEY FEAR THE HATCH BILL.

The Merchants' Exchange Unwilling to Invest While It Is Pending.

In reference to the proposition to purchase the Chamber of Commerce as a permanent home for the Merchants' Exchange for the sum of $600,00. a vote on which has been ordered for July 12, the following petition was circulated on 'Change to-day and received numerous signatures:

In view of the danger of the passage by our Congress of what is called the "Hatch Anti-Option Bill," striking at the liberty of the merchants engaged in the purchase and sale of farm products and to a great extent paralyzing the business of our exchange, rendering useless the ownership of a permanent house for its members, we, the undersigned, request that you delay the vote to be taken on the purchase of the building we now occupy or any other until the action of Congress on the Hatch bill is determined.

The Board of Directors will consider this petition at the next meeting. The reserve fund of the Merchants' Exchange now amounts to $816,067.28.

AN APPROPRIATE INSCRIPTION.

A Piece of Advice That Whitelaw Reid Did Not Accept.

"There is a story concerning Whitelaw Reid's fine house in New York which is very apropos just now," remarked S. B. Kean of Brooklyn. "Reid, as everyone knows, is the son-in-law of D. O. Mills, the California millionaire. When the house was completed it was one of the most expensive in the city, and Mr. Reid's salary was not sufficient to pay the taxes. He was exceedingly proud of his new home, and at the Union League Club, while dining with a party of friends, said that the only thing required to make it complete was an appropriate motto carved in the stone above the door. He asked advice as to what would be a suitable inscription. A humorous friend at the table remarked that above the door should appear the phrase "Sans D. O." This stopped suggestions for the evening, as it was agreed that nothing more appropriate could be devised, but Mr. Reid did not follow the advice given.

Colored Republicans Make a Declaration.

The colored Republicans are getting ready to make a big fight for more representation in party affairs than they have been accorded in this city in past years. Last night the Council of Presidents and Secretaries of Negro Republican League Clubs held a meeting at their wigwam on Twelfth and Morgan streets and engaged in a long discussion. J. D. Hall was in the chair and J. D. Russell was chosen Secretary. A committee with Wm. H. Gibson as chairman reported a new constitution. This declares that the League, outside of national elections, will be strictly non-committal, and free to act with any party it sees fit. The constitution also declares that the Council is not organized for mercenary purposes, but simply to secure the negro Republicans their political rights. If necessary the Council declares it will see that a full negro ticket is nominated for the spring election. This will be done the leaders say, if the Republican bosses continue to deny them the representation they are entitled to by reason of their voting strength.

School Fund Apportionment.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 1.—Hon. L. E. Wolfe, Superintendent of Public Schools, was this morning notified by State Auditor Seibert that by direction of the State Board of Fund Commissioners there has been transferred to the account of State school moneys the sum of $900,306.14, to be apportioned among the several counties for the support of the public schools. This exceeds the apportionment of last year by $23,787.25, which gave over $1 to every child of school age in the State. This money will be apportioned to the various counties by the Superintendent of schools proportionate to the number of children of school age in each and by the county to the several school districts upon the same basis. The proportion to the City of St. Louis will be something over $110,000.

HOW DO the Republicans explain the fact that iron mills all over the country are shutting down owing to difficulties about wages? Such things ought not to happen under the McKinley law.

THE reduction of wages in the protected iron and steel industries has got Mr. CARNEGIE into some trouble, but out of the saving made he will be able to contribute handsomely to the campaign fund.

THE first duty of the delegates to the Judiciary Convention which meets in this city next week is to see that the Democratic party is not loaded down with tainted candidates by the railroad attorneys.

THE local Republican organ remarks: "The appointment of Mr. FOSTER makes one more reason for changes in the President's Cabinet." And the need of these changes is one of the many reasons for a change of administration.

IN insisting that the appropriations must be reduced to the lowest basis consistent with the efficiency of the public service the House is right. It cannot afford to be led into extravagance and into the nullification of the Democratic platform of economy by the Republican Senate.

IN the South the force bill issue will hold that section solid for CLEVELAND. In the Northwest the tariff and the money questions will add to the strength of the anti-Republican States and probably insure of the Democrats or the third party. s more and more like a landslide.

President HARRISON is looking to the Northwest to pull him through. The selection of CAMPBELL for chairman of the National Committee on account of his acquaintance with Western politics certainly looks as if the Republicans had determined to abandon untenable positions.

THE JUDICIARY CONVENTION.

When the delegates to the State Democratic Judiciary Convention meet next week they will face a situation fraught with danger to the party in the approaching campaign. That the railroad bosses will use every means in their power to control the convention and shape the result of its work to their purposes there is no reason to doubt.

The prime object of the railroad clique which has made itself so obnoxiously active and prominent in the affairs of the Democratic party in the State is to all appearances the nomination of Judge SHERWOOD, against whom the gravest charges have been repeatedly made and are still unanswered. He is accused of having favored the railroads in his decisions and of being under heavy obligations to them. It is charged that his campaign is being pushed by railroad agents and attorneys, that passes have been freely distributed and all the influences of the powerful railway corporations in the State are being exerted in his behalf. The Springfield Democrat has challenged reply to these charges and the failure of the Sherwood men to offer any adequate defense gives a presumption of guilt. That the facts will be brought out as far as possible may be relied upon.

Whether true or false, however, the question vital to the Democracy which must be decided by the delegates is whether the nominations of the party for the Supreme Court are to be controlled by railroad influence. The temper of the people has been sufficiently demonstrated in this controversy to indicate the danger lying in such a conclusion. The political managers of the railroads may be counted upon to exhaust the resources of combination, dicker, fair and corrupt influences to accomplish their purposes, and it is the duty of every honest delegate and honest candidate to labor strenuously to defeat them. The honest Democrats with the good of the party at heart must get together to this end. They must guard against the forcing or duping of the convention by trick or bargain. They must insist that the candidates be selected upon their individual merits and strength, not upon the merits and strength of a combination.

Every candidate and delegate must be made to show his hand.

BENEFICIAL MADNESS.

President HARRISON seems to be the victim of a severe attack of midsummer madness. It may be caused by the publication of his picture as a brave warrior wearing a plumed helmet, by the excessive pressure of grandfather's hat on the brain, or it may simply be a rush of his constitutional egotism and waspishness to the head. Whatever the cause the madness is evident, and it has developed symptoms most alarming to his friends and threatening to the prospects of the Republican party. So reckless has been his conduct under the influence of his mania that there is reason to suspect the development of a suicidal tendency.

One sign of his madness is an outbreak of waspishness which is leading him to grind humiliation into the faces of the men who opposed his renomination, rub salt into the sores of Mr. BLAINE and his friends and flaunt his own mastership tauntingly before their eyes.

Another sign is an excess of egotism which leads him to think that BENJAMIN HARRISON is the administration and to brook no division of power or honor. He is determined to run things himself if he has to drive all except Harrison henchmen out of the party. Having renominated himself he is deluded with the belief that he can elect himself without help from any one who does not bow down and acknowledge his superiority.

Still another sign is the combination of blind rashnes, vanity and ill-feeling which led him to appoint JOHN W. FOSTER Secretary of State. To assure his own dominance in the Administration and further humiliate Mr. BLAINE he degraded his party and scandalized the country by selecting for this great office a tainted claim agent and third-rate diplomate.

This series of blunders at a critical time can only be accounted for on the ground of madness, akin to that wave of plutocratic and oligarchical arrogance which effected his renomination. It is the sort of madness that works for the good of the people.

THE single tax people have preferred a modest request which can hardly be refused. They ask that all exhibits at the World's Fair be labeled with the price at the place of production, the American price, the amount of duty and the cost of transportation. This will be an object lesson in protection which can be apprehended and comprehended at a glance.

EX-SECRETARY WHITNEY declares that "you can always trust the people." This is the ttom fact on which Democracy rests here is reason to believe that this yea Democratic party more nearly tha time since its early days will re ue Democracy.

IRON WORKERS OUT.

One Hundred and Fifty Men Leave the Helmbacher Mills.

EMPLOYES AT THE NIEDRINGHAUS WORKS REMAIN AT WORK.

The Helmbacher Mill Men Say They Are Not On a Strike, But Merely Taking a Vacation—Niedringhaus Bros. Fear No Trouble—They Say They Will Sign the Scale.

As a result of a refusal to sign the scale adopted by the Amalgamated Association in session for a week past at Pittsburg, Pa., the heaters, rollers and puddlers employed by the Helmbacher Forge & Rolling Mills Co., numbering 150, quit work last night and the mills have been shut down. In the scale adopted last year and signed by the manufacturers of the United States, there was a clause embodied in the scale granting the employes a two weeks vacation from the 1st of July. At the meeting of the association of Sheet Iron Manufacturers and the Amalgamated Association of Iron Workers, just held in Pittsburg, committees from both organizations met in conference to arrange a scale for the present year. The scale prepared by the Amalgamated Association was considered satisfactory to the manufacturers, and they were reported favorably by the committees from both sides. The shearing clause and the two weeks' vacation being omitted by mutual consent. Another phrase in the scale relative to the salaries of the workers was also dropped, as both employer and employes argued that the industry was yet in its infancy in this country, and that it would be suicidal to the manufacturer to have prices regulated, and this department was also dropped out to receive the consideration of the consecretion meeting.

AT THE HELMBACHER MILLS.

A reporter for the POST-DISPATCH called on Mr. G. L. Goetz, Secretary of the Helmbacher Forge & Rolling Mills Co., this afternoon and when asked why the company's mills were shut down, he replied: "Our men are out because we have refused so far to sign the scale just adopted at Pittsburg. The scale was presented to us Monday and we have been considering it, not deeming it advisable to sign it right away, and as a result our men have all gone out. The fact of the matter is we cannot afford to sign the scale, as it will be impossible for us to continue business at a profit and pay the same wages that we have been compelled to pay during the past two years. Now in Pennsylvania there are no organized lodges, I mean in some parts of the State, and the large manufacturers have their puddling work done for from $3.25 to $3.50 per ton while we are compelled to pay for the same work $5.50. As they are in the center of the coal and iron regions you will readily see how well we can afford to compete with them. For us to sign another scale compelling us to pay the prices that we have had to pay would be suicide to our business. On account of having to pay such high prices for our labor we have to sell at an advance to make both ends meet. Our men are not considerate. They should consider our circumstances as well as their own, for if our business should be shut down all together, they would all be thrown out of employment. When we learned they were going out we asked them to work the rest of this week out until we had further time to consider the matter. This they refused to do. No, I cannot tell whether we will sign the scale or not. We will take our time now."

A number of the puddlers were found at a boarding-house on South Third street, and when asked why they went out, the spokesman for the group replied: "In the scale adopted at our last convention it was specifically stated that we should have a two weeks' holiday and we are taking it. If our firm had signed the scale before this morning we would have been compelled to keep at work, as the scale adopted at the convention just held, the week's vacation, among other clauses, were omitted. We have not thought of a strike as yet, but when our vacation is up if the scale is not signed, the Helmbacher Forge & Rolling Mill Co. will have to look for more men, for as a matter of course we will not return to work."

AT THE NIEDRINGHAUS MILLS.

A visit to the Niedringhaus works found the men all at work, as that firm had signed the scale and employes and employer were working together in harmony. "We anticipate no trouble," said Mr. Geo. W. Niedringhaus, "as we have complied with the wishes of the Amagamated Association and, as I understand it, the scale was signed by my father in Pittsburg, or else our men would not be at work. I had a telegram from my father last night stating that everything had been amicably settled and a later telegram from a committee from the Amalgamated Association to Mr. John Johns, one of our employes, confirms his report, and we have no fear of any trouble. My brother will return to-morrow and if there is any misunderstanding it will all come out then. I can't say whether our men will take a two weeks' vacation or not."

The employes of the mills have very little to say and will take no action until Mr. Niedringhaus and the delegates return from Pittsburg, and if entire satisfaction is not given by the arrangement made, an outbreak may be expected at the Niedringhaus mills on Saturday night.

LITTLE HOPE THIS YEAR.

Col. Logan H. Roots Discusses the Arkansas Political Situation.

Col. Logan H. Roots, one of the most prominent Republican leaders of Arkansas is in the city to-day consulting with business associates. Col. Roots is largely interested in Arkansas properties and believes that there is a great future for that State. Though a Republican of the most pronounced type Col. Roots always refrains from saying anything unkind about his Democratic neighbors. Speaking to-day of the political situation in Arkansas, he said: "I don't see much chance of the Republicans accomplishing any surprising change in the political status down there. The Democrats have nominated Col. Fishback for Governor and they are organizing for a more energetic campaign than ever. Of course I would like to see Arkansas become a Republican state but the chances seem to be against us.

"Our State has suffered a great deal this year from high water and much suffering has been endured by the planters in the bottoms, but we expect that everything will turn out well. Every case of distress reported from the overflowed districts has been promptly attended to and things down there now are looking bright and promising."

CROP REPORTS.

Kansas Farmers Short of Harvesters—South Dakota Prospects.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 1.—Kansas farmers are having great trouble in securing sufficient hands to harvest the enormous crop of wheat in the State, most of which is now ready for cutting. There is an alarming scarcity of farm hands, and the farmers are offering high wages to secure sufficient help. At all the stations along the Santa Fe Railway the trains are daily besieged by farmers trying to secure men to work. They offer from $2 to $3 a day with board, wages which have never been known to prevail in the State before. Last year's wheat crop was 54,055,000 bushels, and the yield this year will probably exceed that of any previous year in the history of the State. In the central and northern portions of the State at least 20,000 farm hands can find employment at wages ranging from $2 to $3 a day with board, during the harvest. The oat crop, too, promises a very large yield and the corn crop—the acreage of which exceeds any previous year—will probably exceed any former yield, providing of course that no general disaster overtakes it before harvest time. Conservative estimates place the total yield in the neighborhood of 200,000,000 bushels. Arrangements are being made by the Santa Fe Railway to relieve the situation as regards the scarcity of farm laborers. They will enable the employment of idle people in Oklahoma and will make a low excursion rate into the State, which together with the high rates of wages prevaling will probably induce enough men to come to Kansas to insure the speedy harvesting of the crops.

SOUTH DAKOTA PROSPECTS.

HURON, S. D., July 1.—Bulletin No. 12, issued from the United States Weather Bureau in this city, gives the condition of crops in South Dakota for the week ending June 28: The amount of rainfall during the week was above the average and fairly well distributed throughout the State, except that a few localities, especially portions of the Black Hills country, had exceptionally heavy showers. The average fall for the State was about one inch and a quarter.

The temperature during the week was considerably below the average and the nights have been abnormally cool; this has been unfavorable to corn, which is generally backward.

The amount of sunshine has been below the average and cloudy weather has prevailed.

On general average the week was not as favorable as the last. The moisture is ample and all crops are in condition to derive the greatest benefit from higher temperature and more sunshine. Corn especially needs these conditions.

Small grain is looking well, and, as a general thing, is rank on the ground, with heavy, deep roots and full stool. The early-sown wheat is jointing, while rye and barley are heading.

Grass is in fine condition and a heavy crop of hay expected.

COUPON NO. 16.

Mrs. Ellen Brady Paid $50 by the "Sunday Post-Dispatch."

On June 26 Walter F. Brady, a son of Mrs. Ellen Brady of 2336½ Carr street, was almost instantly killed near Jefferson avenue and Wash street by a falling rock. He died before he could be removed to his home. He wore in his trouser's pockets a SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH coupon, and his mother to-day received the $50 due to her thereon. It was the sixteenth benefit paid. The accompanying documents tell the story.

MARY CALLAHAN'S AFFIDAVIT.

State of Missouri, City of St. Louis.

Mary E. Callahan, of lawful age, being duly sworn on her oath, states that she found the following coupon in the pocket of Walter F. Brady, who was killed on the 26th of June, 1892, at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Wash street. The coupon was in the pocket of the pantaloons that the deceased wore at the time of his death.

GIVEN THE CHILD.

Mrs. Margaret A. Keane Secures the Little Daughter.

A COMPROMISE EFFECTED WITH HER HUSBAND THIS MORNING.

Each Will Have the Girl on Alternate Weeks, as Was the Previous Arrangement—Keane Agrees to Surrender the Child To-Day—How the Deputy Sheriff Was Fooled—Court News.

When Judge Fisher, sitting in Chambers, this morning called for the return to the writ of habeas corpus, issued by him yesterday to Mrs. Margaret A. Keane of 4147 Lucky street, who is seeking to obtain possession of her daughter from John J. F. Keane, her husband, whom she is suing for divorce, he was informed by Col. D. P. Dyer, Mrs. Keane's attorney, that they were unable to get service on Keane. An agreement was entered into by Mrs. Keane and her husband whereby she and her husband were to have the custody of their 9-year-old daughter, Grace, each alternative week while the divorce suit was pending. This is Mrs. Keane's week to have the child, and she has been unable to get it from her husband, notwithstanding that she is armed with three orders of court—the original order made relative to the disposition of the child, a writ of assistance issued by Judge Valliant last Monday, directing the Sheriff to aid her in getting the child and the writ of habeas corpus yesterday. Keane claims to be willing to give up the child, and even to have gone looking for his wife to give up the child, but the fact is that neither his wife nor a Deputy Sheriff could find him.

Deputy Sheriff Shaperkotter, who was intrusted with serving the writ of habeas corpus yesterday stated that he went out to Keane's house at 3518 Caroline street yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, and was told by Keane's sister that her brother was not at home.

OUT THE BACK DOOR.

He waited around until about 6 o'clock, when a little girl came to him, he said, as he was standing with his back to a church a short distance away, watching the front door of Keane's house. The little girl asked Shaperkotter, he states, if he was waiting to see Mr. Keane, and the deputy said he was. Then, he alleges, the little girl said:

"Why he has gone out the back door with Gracie and went down Park avenue."

Deputy Shaperkotter hastened around to the rear and looked up and down the street indicated by the little girl, but could see nothing of Keane or the child. The deputy remained hovering about the house until after 7 o'clock when he gave up the search.

ENTERS HIS APPEARANCE.

Keane's attorney, Frank A. Hobein, came into court a few minutes after Col. Dyer had made his statement to the court, and announced that his client would appear in court. Judge Fisher retired to the judges' consultation chamber, leaving word that if Keane came to notify him. Keane came in shortly after, but without the child. A consultation was then held between Keane and his lawyer and Col. Dyer, which resulted in a compromise being agreed upon to the effect that Keane be allowed to keep the child this week and deliver it to his wife next Monday, and that thereafter each should have the child week about.

When the agreement was reached Court Clerk Jim Gray went up stairs and informed Judge Fisher, who came down and ascended the bench. Col. Dyer informed the court of the agreement, and agreed to waive the past, and asked that an order be made in accordance with the agreement. Judge Fisher refused to make the order requested, and instead made an order requiring Keane to deliver up the child to-day to his wife, and she to return it to him next Monday, and each to have it week about from then. This was satisfactory to both sides, and all parties left the court.

CALLED ON JUDGE FISHER.

It cropped out to-day that during the week Keane had taken the child and called at Judge Fisher's residence to explain his side of the case. Judge Fisher when asked regarding the matter admitted that Keane called on him one morning during the week.

"It was Wednesday or Thursday morning," said Judge Fisher. "I don't remember exactly which. I did not remember Keane. The case was in Judge Withrow's Court, and I simply made the order regarding the custody of the child. I told him that I could not do anything in the matter, out of court, and I did not want to talk about the cause. He wanted to throw the matter onto the child. I asked the little girl if she wanted to go with her mother and she said 'no.'"

Judge Fisher smiled as he made the latter statement, but made no further comment. His manner indicated, however, that he had his own ideas about the matter. Mrs. Keane belongs to a good family and her marriage eleven years ago was quite a brilliant event.

Investigating Her Sanity.

A jury is engaged in the Probate Court this afternoon inquiring into the sanity of Mrs. Pauline Schlief on information of her son, Bruno Schlief. Mrs. Schlief is confined in the asylum and owns some property which cannot be attended to without having her declared of unsound mind. Attorney W. F. Woerner is conducting the case, and G. A. Finkelnburg is defending under an appointment of the court. Mrs. Catharine E. Meyer was declared a person of unsound mind by a jury in the Probate Court to-day. The information under which the inquiry into the mental condition of Mrs. Meyer was had was filed by Mrs. Catharine W. Woodcock, a daughter of Mrs. Meyer. Attorney W. F. Woerner conducted the case. Inquiry was had in the Probate Court to-day in the case of Susan Hill, who is charged with being so addicted to habitual drunkenness as to be incapable of managing her affairs.

The Van Studdiford Estate.

An application was made to-day to Judge Dillon for the appointment of trustees to take charge of the Van Studdiford estate. Dr. Henry Van Studdiford died in 1886, leaving an estate valued at from $400,000 to $500,000. His estate was left in trust for his family, to be in charge of trustees appointed by the court. It has been decided to form a stock company of the estate to be known as the Van Studdiford estate, to be in charge of trustees. Judge Dillon appointed Edward B. Wolf and J. B. C. Lucas trustees. Attorneys J. F. Lee and Arthur Lee have charge of the legal affairs of the company.

Court Notes.

L. A. Tatum, Thos. Farrelly and Joseph A. Duffy were appointed commissioners to-day by Judge Dillon to assess the damages in the matter of opening Arkansas avenue from Arsenal street to Shenandoah street.

Francis Coates by her will admitted to probate to-day leaves all her real estate in "McRee City" St. Louis to her daughter Emma Cavanagh and $1 each to her daughters Harriet Hayes and Marie Hector.

THREE TRAIN LOADS.

Arrangements for the Departure of St. Louis Christian Endeavorers.

Next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, from under the sheds of the Union Depot and away toward the tunnel and the great East, will steam three sections of a special Wabash train laden with 800 Missouri delegates to the eleventh International Convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, to be held in Madison Square Garden, New York City, July 7 to 10 inclusive. The arrangements for the trip to New York and for the stay of the delegates in that city have been completed, and they embrace a fineness and thoroughness of detail which even in this day of well studied programmes is a marvel of minuteness.

The names of 750 of the delegates are already recorded, and Mr. William H. McClain, President of the Missouri Christian Endeavor Union, is busily engaged with a large force in the effort to complete the preliminary work. Of the Missouri delegation 150 will stop with friends in New York. The others will be provided for by the Committee of Arrangements in hotels and private residences. For this purpose all of the Sturtevant House and the Coleman House have been pre-empted by the Missourians.

A train load of Endeavorers will leave Kansas City next Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock and arrive in this city at 5:30 p. m. Large delegations will also arrive Tuesday evening from St. Joseph, Hannibal, Springfield, De Soto, in fact from every corner of the State. These delegations will board the special along with the 300 and more from St. Louis. A one-fare through rate from every part of the State has been made. The advantages of the trip were so apparent to the many Endeavorers that the committees in charge were obliged to close the lists because a greater delegation could not be handled.

Special conductors who are members of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be in charge of each car and they are as follows:

Car No. 1, Geo. Harkness; No. 2, Geo. B. Latham; No. 3, A. E. Whitaker; No. 4, O. S. Johnson; No. 5, A. H. Frederick; No. 6, D. M. Park; No. 7, J. F. St. Louis Drinking Water.

The very bad condition of the Mississippi River drinking water has been a matter of extended public comment the last few days. A St. Louis business man is exhibiting a flannel rag which he had tied on his faucet for three days. The mass of filth which this rude filter collected is beyond belief and is only exceeded by the vile odor emitted from the rag. It is very strange that our citizens will continue to drink this sewage contaminated water when they can get ten gallons of Hygeia water, clear as a crystal, sparkling as a diamond, for $1.50. Hygeia is the best and purest table water, and ten gallons a week is enough for an average-sized family.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION.

Arrangements Made by Grand Marshal Smith for the Parade.

This morning Gen. A. J. Smith, Grand Marshal of the Independence Day parade was in consultation with Nelson Cole, chief of staff, and John B. Gandolfo, Adjutant-General, in reference to the arrangements for the procession. The column will move at 10 o'clock promptly, and it is expected that by noon it will pass before the reviewing stand in front of the Exposition building. New applications for assignment to positions are being constantly received. The Grand Marshal has issued instructions to his division marshals to keep the column well closed up, and to allow no gaps to occur. A large corps of aids will be appointed to carry orders, and it is the aim to have the column move without a halt. Letters have been received from Senators Vest and Cockrell regretting their inability to be present, as they are detained at Washington by their duties. Senator Palmer may be able to be present, but Gen. A. E. Stevenson will not. At the meeting held yesterday afternoon the following arrangement of the parade was agreed upon:

Column.

First—Mounted Police.
Second—Gov. D. R. Francis, Mayor E. A. Noonan, President Web M. Samuel, Secretary Stephen Dellacella, in carriages.
Third—Maj.-Gen. E. A. Smith and staff, mounted.
Fourth—Military organizations with arms.
Fifth—Semi-military organizations without arms.
Sixth—Uniformed societies.
Seventh—Societies without uniforms.

They will form as follows:

Mounted police on east side of Twelfth, between Pine and Olive streets.
Carriages with Mayor, Chairman and Secretary, northwest corner of Pine and Twelfth streets.
Grand Marshal and staff on west side of Twelfth, north of Pine street.
First Division on west side of Twelfth street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Second Division on Thirteenth street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Third Division on Fourteenth street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Fourth Division on Sixteenth street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Sixth Division on Seventeenth street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Eighth Division on Twentieth street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Tenth Division on Twenty-second street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Eleventh Division on Twenty-third street, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.
Twelfth Division on Jefferson avenue, south of Pine, right resting on Pine street.

The line of march is as follows:

Starting from Twelfth and Pine, to Garrison avenue, north on Garrison avenue to Locust street, east on Locust to Fifteenth, south on Fifteenth to Olive, east on Olive to Twelfth street, where division commanders will take charge of their divisions and march them to the east, north or south without halting until their respective divisions are off of Olive street, when they will disband.

On passing the Exposition Building the column will be reviewed by Gov. D. R. Francis, Mayor E. A. Noonan and Col. S. B. M. Young. The signal for the start will be the discharge of three pieces of artillery. A meeting of the general committee will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock to arrange further details.

A meeting of the Programme Committee was held this morning, and the plans for the day were laid out. At daybreak there will be a salute of 116 guns; twenty-nine will be fired at Benton Park, twenty-nine at Lafayette Park, twenty-nine at Washington Square, and twenty-nine at St. Louis Park. At noon a national salute of twelve guns will be fired at the Fair Grounds. After the last gun is fired, Web M. Samuel, Chairman of the General Committee, will mount the platform, and declare the exercises opened. After prayer the Declaration of Independence will be read by Miss Lillie V. Pierce. An hour will then be occupied by addresses from speakers hereafter to be selected. There will be a balloon ascension, and three of the largest buildings on the grounds will be thrown open for dancing. At 5 o'clock there will be a display of day fireworks and at 8 o'clock the grand fireworks display will take place.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIAL POISON

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so safely or so promptly as Swift's Specific.

LIFE HAD NO CHARMS.

For three years I was troubled with malarial poison, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was greatly reduced in flesh, and life lost all its charms. I tried mercurial and potash remedies, but to no effect. I could get no relief. I then tried S.S.S. A few bottles of this wonderful medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever. J. A. RICE, Ottawa, Kan.

ADVANCE IN ANTHRACITE.

It Will Be 25 Cents a Ton More After To-Day.

Anthracite coal has advanced 25 cents per ton. This was the advice received by local coal dealers from New York this morning, at which place at the sales agents' meeting the advance was decided upon yesterday, to take effect to-day, July 1.

This is a break which has been expected from the anthracite coalition which was recently formed by the Reading Railway Co., backed by Morgan, Drexel & C., bankers, the Vanderbilts and other equally powerful capitalists, for the purpose of controlling the anthracite coal market. The corporation has about $700,000,000 behind it and at present controls about 75 to 80 per cent of the entire output of anthracite coal. The combine was formed through the Reading Co., which secured control of the Jersey Central and other roads penetrating the anthracite districts under a guarantee process, which has been rigorously but unsuccessfully attacked by the courts at Chicago and elsewhere, by which they were to pay a stipulated dividend of interest on the bonds and instruments of the respective roads.

Mr. Albert L. Berry, Vice-President of the Berry-Horn Coal Co., who was seen this morning by a POST-DISPATCH reporter in regard to the advance, said:

"We received notice to-day of the advance from New York. I have been expecting it for some time, however, as anthracite coal has been sold here for the past three years at a loss. The Reading road, as you know, now has virtually control of all the mines, and my opinion is they will advance the price all it will stand without interfering with the road's tonnage.

"The anthracite mines have been running at a loss for years. Why, you deduct the freight and handling, and we got it here at a few cents advance on our soft coal. All grades of anthracite are to go up under the new arrangement. The coal that could have been bought yesterday for $7.25 and $7.50 per ton would cost to-day $7.50 and $7.75.

"The anthracite supply is growing less each year, though it is not by any means exhausted. This is therefore, the argument why the output should be protected."

ABOUT TOWN.

GUS GEOR, 16 years of age, was drowned while bathing in the river yesterday afternoon at the foot of Cass avenue.

JORDAN TURNER, charged with burglary, was acquitted in St. Louis County yesterday. It was the third time Turner had been tried. He was charged with having burglarized the residence of J. L. Wishart of Kirkwood.

CHIEF HARRIGAN has received a letter from John and William Lane of Taylorville, Ywell County, Colo., asking if their father, John Lane, is still in St. Louis. They have not been able to hear from him since they moved to Colorado, four years ago. A tin type likeness of the gentleman taken several years ago accompanied the letter.

J. C. CARANNE, President of the St. Louis Dairy Co., had Lloyd R. Schaeffer, one of his drivers, arrested to-day on the charge of embezzling $25, which he had collected from families to whom he had delivered milk.

MRS. ELLEN WILLIAMS, the old colored woman who fell down stairs at 2220 North Seventh street, a couple of days ago, died of her injuries last night. An inquest will be held to-morrow.

THE charge against Calvin Smith, one of the strikers arrested the other day for intimidating other river men and trying to prevent them from working, was nolle prossed in the Court of Criminal Correction to-day, the prosecuting witness failing to appear against him.

LOUIS TRIEBER was arrested on a charge of stealing clothing from the establishment of J. Lippe, No. 712 Lucas avenue, where he had been employed about three weeks. The police recovered about $90 worth of clothing, which, they state, Trieber confesses having stolen.

EDWARD KOUNTZ was arrested this morning on a charge of stealing a watch and pocketbook from Paul H. Weinhold, at the latter's boarding-house, 2801 DeKalb street. When arrested two pawn tickets were found on him for a coat and vest stolen from two other boarders. Two warrants for petit larceny were issued against him.

A special "patriotic service" has been arranged by the pastor of People's Tabernacle Church, Twenty-third street and Clark avenue, and will be given Sabbath evening at 8 as a very practicable form of "applied christianity." Special music, responsive and select readings, an address by the pastor on "Loving a City and What Came of It," patriotic decorations for the church, printed programmes, etc., will be features. All are invited.

Bad Runaway Accident.

CARBONDALE, Ill., July 1.—A serious if not fatal accident happened at this place about 9 o'clock this forenoon. Andrew S. Caldwell, a lawyer of note, who held an important Western position under the Cleveland administration, accompanied by his sister, Miss Mollie, was driving a young and unbroken horse attached to a buggy. In passing the track of the Illinois Central Railroad the horse became unmanageable and ran. At the crossing of Main and East streets the buggy struck a tree; both occupants were thrown out. Luckily the lady sustained but little apparent injury. Mr. Caldwell was less fortunate, striking the sidewalk his face was terribly injured, the nose broken in two places and it is feared the skull is fractured. The physicians in charge pronounce the case extremely critical.

Stabbed in the Abdomen.

John Fox and Jim Allen, both colored, engaged in a dispute at a late hour this afternoon over the strike of the longshoremen, on the levee in the alley bounded by Seventh, Eighth and Morgan streets and Franklin avenues. During the melee Fox drew his knife and stabbed Allen in the abdomen. The latter was removed to the City Hospital in a serious condition while Fox was locked up at the Third District Station. Fox is a union striker while the man he stabbed is a non-union man.

Street Railroad Consolidation.

The formal consolidation of the Northern Central, Union and Cass avenue street-car lines took place at a meeting of the stockholders and directors held yesterday, and hereafter they will all be known as the Cass Avenue & Fair Grounds Railway. The roads have practically been one for some time, all being owned by the Holmes syndicate of Chicago, which also owns the Citizens' or Franklin avenue cable. The consolidation is under an ordinance approved last April and the lines will all be rebuilt and changed from horse to electric power. The lines will also be extended.

LAST FREE SPECIAL TRAIN TO FAIRMOUNT PARK,

(Near Ferguson.)

WHERE ONLY $17 BUYS A HOME

"When will you next be going out to Fairmount Park? I want to get a few lots, but would like to see the place before buying."

Such inquiries and statements continue in large numbers, and though our desire is to be accommodating, we may remark that there is a limit to all things—even to free special railroad trains, which, by the way, cost money—so far have cost us a barrel of it. However, as we have only a very few lots left, we have decided to conduct our sale to a conclusion in the liberal manner that has characterized it from its commencement, and will therefore run one—but only one—more free train instead of sending purchasers out in twos, threes or half dozens on the regular trains, as some parties have suggested. This train, which will positively be the last, will leave the Union Depot by the Wabash Railroad on Saturday, July 2, at 2 o'clock.

The usual stops will be made for passengers at West Grand Avenue and Forsythe Junction.

NO TICKETS REQUIRED.

ONLY 77 LOTS LEFT,

All the others having been sold since the sale opened on the morning of Tuesday, 21st. What a record! It speaks volumes for Fairmount Park.

1260 LOTS SOLD

To people who have actually been there and walked over the land. We don't try to do business in the pig-in-the-bag style. No, we take the people out, show them the property and allow the lots to sell themselves. All acknowledge that the property is dirt cheap, and that buyers cannot help making money when buying lots at $17 per lot, $20 per lot, $25 per lot, $30 per lot, $35 per lot, $40 per lot, $45 per lot and $50 per lot—whole lot.

The remaining lots for sale are as fine as any that have been sold, so parties who may wish to go out on Saturday may be certain of having a choice of the very cream of the property.

74 Houses About to Be Built at Fairmount Park.

So say that number of purchasers, who further state that they will begin building almost at once. Under the circumstances lots will be worth five times their present prices by fall.

A more beautiful spot or more desirable place of residence, whether it be for rich or poor, is not to be found anywhere. Besides, the train service, which is now good, will be very greatly improved within the next few weeks. Fares are very low and the city can be reached in about 35 minutes. The land is high and dry, has perfect natural drainage, is free from low or swampy places, and the view for miles around is simply superb. In short, Fairmount Park, with its picturesque surroundings, grand shade trees and purest of water, is the very gem of St. Louis suburban towns; yet we offer a choice of the lots at from $17 to $50 each—whole lots.

The title to the property is perfect—in fact, is guaranteed by the St. Louis Trust Co., whose certificates—as well as our warranty deeds—we furnish free to purchasers.

FAIRMOUNT PARK BUILDING & LOAN SOCIETY will be the name of a company that is now being organized by several St. Louis and St. Charles business men, whose object will be the loaning of money to all who desire funds for the purpose of building at Fairmount Park. Their announcement may be looked for in the very near future. Remember the day, date and hour on which this free extra train will run—Saturday, July 2, at 2 o'clock.

Office open day time and evenings. You can buy from us there if you wish.

Terms—$5 down; balance by 9 o'clock on the evening of the next business day.

Despite the rain the water was smooth and there was no wind.

The crews lined up shortly after 11 o'clock. The race was over a two-mile straightaway course. Yale crossed the line first at 11:29 o'clock by two and a half lengths, Columbia second and Harvard third. The unofficial time was Yale 12:03½, Columbia 12:20, and Harvard 12:28.

The race was rowed up the river with the flood tide. The course lay east of the regular Yale-Harvard 'Varsity course. The starting point was on a line with the four-mile flag of the 'Varsity course and the finish was at the two-mile flag just below the Navy Yard. The crews were at least seventy-feet apart, the course being marked out by lines of flags at each half mile. The referee was Mr. Wm. Maikleham of Columbia, who refereed the 'Varsity race last year.

The following is the freshmen racing record for each year:

Year.	Winner.	Time.	Loser.	Time.
1861....	Columbia	9:41	Yale	9:53½

THIS EVENING'S GREAT RACE.

Weather permitting, the long expected and much looked for 'Varsity race between Yale and Harvard will be started at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Boating authorities assert that every individual member of both crews is in prime physical condition and unite in affirming that the struggle will be the most exciting in years. The record will be broken is the general opinion Yale is smarting under last year's defeat, and will make every effort to wrest victory from the Harvard giants. Ebb tide is at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, so that the crews will have a good strong tide with them down the river. Harvard will have the west course nearest the observation train, and Yale the east.

The Yale launch will be the referees' boat, and will contain only Referee G. L. Rivers. Timers C. F. Adams for Harvard, and George A. Adee for Yale. Judges T. N. Parker and "Bob" Cook, the pilot and the engineer. C. 2. Shade of Harvard and John Howland of Yale will be judges at the finish.

The situation at this hour in a nutshell is this: Harvard has a decided advantage in physique and are rowing in better form than last week. Yale is certainly inferior as far as physique goes, but those who have seen them work declare that if they are beaten it will not be for want of perfection in method and watermanship.

There is a suspicion in Yale headquarters that Harvard's bad form in practice was put on with the intention to deceive, and the crimsons are keeping some secrets in reserve. If this be the case, they have played their part to perfection. Yale men are unanimous, while Harvard people are confident. The crews will line up as follows:

Counting back to the inaugural contest in 1852, Harvard can claim sixteen victories to Yale's eleven. Since the race became an annual occurrence in 1876 the blue was victorious nine times, the crimson seven.

The betting on the Yale-Harvard University race, which is set down for 5 o'clock this afternoon, was in favor of Harvard last night, but is now 100 to 80 in favor of Yale, with few Harvard takers. Bob Cook telegraphed last night to a business man in Philadelphia to bet $5,000 on Yale, and this morning it was covered. This is the first time that Bob is known to have bet so much on his crew.

BASE BALL.

COLUMBUS, O., July 1.—James A. Williams, president of the Western League, being asked if it was true that the League proposed to disband to-day, said: "We open our second series of championship games to-morrow. Our clubs have gone West to open them. That does not look as though we proposed to disband. I do not pretend to say we have been successful financially, but that has been a result of bad weather. As far as I know our players and clubs are satisfied and we expect the second series to be better in playing and financially than the first."

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Telegraphic accounts of yesterday's game at Louisville do not reflect much credit on the Browns. After three innings spent in wrangling among themselves the team devoted the remaining six to their opponents and Mr. Hurst. The roasting of Mr. Hurst might have been called for but bickering among the players is disgusting to the spectators and absolutely fatal to a club's chances for victory. It was such tactics that cost St. Louis the game. In the fourth innings Weaver drove a line fly to right center, which Brodie and Gleason went after, colliding with tremendous force. Capt. Crooks calmly surveyed the spectacle from second base. The Browns had three men on bases in the final innings, but Caruthers was unequal to the emergency and only popped up a short fly. The summary: Louisville, 4; St. Louis, 2. Base hits—Louisville, 8; St. Louis, 8. Errors—Louisville, 3; St. Louis, 3.

TO-MORROW'S GAME.

The Brooklyns make their farewell appearance this championship division at sportsman's Park to-morrow. John Ward has a team of hustlers, who though they may not win the pennant, will have a good deal to say as to where it will land. They have a splendid chance to win second place, and their games here to-day and to-morrow will be largely influential in determining their chances. If the Browns win either to-day or to-morrow they will win the series from Brooklyn. Old Sport Galvin will probably pitch to-morrow. Likewise Dave Foutz. Play will be called at 4 o'clock. Lynch will umpire.

THE TURF.

A pair of 5 to 1 shots and three favorites won the purses at East St. Louis yesterday afternoon. The weather was cool and the track in excellent condition. The summaries follow:

First race, six furlongs—Sea King, won; Montpelier, second; Preston R., third. Time, 1:18.

Second race, five-eighths of a mile—Lucy Haywardsen, won; Jack White, second; Sister Ione, third. Time, 1:03½.

Third race, four and one-half furlongs—Annie Golden, won; Sea Belle, second; Hambrick, third. Time, :59.

Fourth race, handicap, three-fourths of a mile—Ruben, won; Harry Weaver, second; Lamothe, third. Time, 1:16½.

Fifth race, one mile—Insolence, won; Rotalga, second; Tamerlane, third. Time, 1:43.

AT SOUTH SIDE.

The races at South Side Park yesterday afternoon were run over a fast track. Two favorites, a heavily supported second choice and a 6-to-1 chance captured the four purses, the third race having been declared off. The summaries follow:

First race, three-quarters of a mile—Langtry won; Everett, second; Emmet, third. Time, 1:20.

Second race, half mile—Columbus won; Bath Water, second; Keenanna, third. Time, :53.

Third race—Declared off.

Fourth race, five furlongs—Surget won; Sinbad, second; Elprastoes, third. Time, 1:09.

Fifth race, three-quarters of a mile—Esther won; Hornet, second; Markham, third. Time, 1:21.

THE EVENING EVENTS.

A good-sized crowd was present and thoroughly enjoyed the sport at South Side last evening. One favorite, one second choice, and a pair of 7 to 1 shots carried off the purses. The summaries follow:

First race, five-eighths of a mile—Cinch, first; Silver Dollar, second; Peente, third. Time, 1:08.

Second race, five-eighths of a mile—Minnie Lee, first; Dan L., second; Allehue, third. Time, 1:08½.

THE RING.

The California Club Wigwam at San Francisco was filled by 3,000 spectators last evening, who witnessed the defeat of California's "Mission Boy" at the hands of Joe Goddard, the Australian. It took the Barrier Champion fifteen rounds of savage fighting to finish his burly antagonist. McAuliffe weighed in at 215 pounds. He was in the pink of condition and the physical contrast between him and Goddard was painful. The Australian looked well about the arms and shoulders, but his limbs were thin. However, appearances were, as ever, deceitful, and it was Goddard's fight after the opening round. Fully $75,000 changed hands on the fight, odds being slightly in McAuliffe's favor at 12 to 10.

McAuliffe opened up well and carried off the honors in the first, third and fourth rounds. After that the Australian commenced his rushing tactics. McAuliffe could not stop him and after that it was only a question of how long the big fellows could hold out. Goddard fought like a demon and but for the physical advantage of his antagonist would have finished him in the ninth round. In the fourteenth and fifteenth rounds Goddard fought like a tiger, landing blows wherever he pleased, but he could not put the big fellow to sleep. After repeated knock-downs in the final round McAuliffe's seconds threw up the sponge. Goddard was comparatively fresh at the end of the contest and was complimented on all sides for his game and savage fight. His exhibition of science was a surprise to many.

SAFETY IN RAILWAY TRAFFIC.

A Bill Drawn by John J. O'Neill to Promote It.

A bill has been reported to the House of Representatives by John J. O'Neill from the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce to promote the safety of employes and travelers upon railways by compelling lines engaged in interstate commerce to equip their cars with automatic couplers and continuous brakes, and their locomotives with driving wheel brakes. The bill provides that after July 1, 1893, no railroad shall put into use any new locomotive not equipped with power driving wheel brakes, and that after July 1, 1895, none not so provided can be used. After July 1, 1895, it shall be unlawful to employ any new car not provided with automatic couplers, and that after July 1, 1898, all cars shall be so provided. The bill also provides that each common carrier shall, before July 1, 1893, file with the Inter-State Commerce Commission a statement concerning the style of freight car coupler that is deemed the best, and that the commission shall fix a standard type which shall prevail.

A Two-Foot Rise in the River.

The floods to the north of St. Louis have made the river rise two feet in the last twenty-four hours, and the water is correspondingly dirty and foul. It is a good time now to provide against any form of typhus epidemic, which is sure to come from drinking the Mississippi River water, filled as it is with the sewage contaminations of the cities and towns north of us. The most sensible preparation is to order a ten-gallon can of Hygeia water, clear as a crystal, sparkling as a diamond, and a telephone to 212 North Commercial street will bring a specially lined ten-gallon can to any residence or office in St. Louis. Hygeia is the best and purest table water, and should be used by every family who prefers an absolutely germless drinking water to the Mississippi River water, freighted as it is with microbes and germs.

An Old Man's Suicide.

Ludwig Zimmers, nearly 80 years of age, committed suicide yesterday in a field near Lindenwood by shooting himself with a musket. He formerly lived with Frank Kleine at 6624 Cleveland avenue, but for several months has been leading the life of a tramp. A couple of weeks ago he was arrested for stealing $225 from Kleine, his benefactor, and remorse is supposed to have driven him to suicide.

Charges Against an Officer.

Charges of a serious nature have been preferred against Officer Martin Delaney of the Central District and an investigation will be held at the meeting of the Police Board next Tuesday. A. V. Minnigrad, a well known liquor dealer living at 904 La Salle street, claims that the officer attacked Mrs. Minnigrad and struck her twice with his club, besides using obscene language in her presence. The affair, it is claimed, occurred at Fourth and Olive streets a few evenings since, while Mrs. Minnegrad and her sister, Mrs. Goehoung, were returning from a river excursion.

TRAVELERS' COLLAR AND CUFF PORTFOLIO.

The new device shown above is a clever thing, and one certainly badly needed, for if there is anything on the face of the earth that has annoyed the traveler more than another it is the carrying of collars and cuffs.

It can best be likened to a big pocketbook; it takes up the smallest possible space, and is light, flexible, convenient, attractive and economical, and is good for home use as well as traveling. LADIES find it a marvel of convenience for carrying laces, ruchings, scarfs, handkerchiefs, kid gloves, etc. Ask your dealer for it; it will delight you, as it does the work to a T.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Consideration of the Silver Bill Postponed—Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—In the Senate, when the hour of 2 o'clock was reached, the supposed understanding to postpone a vote on the silver bill was upset. Mr. Morgan said he could find no one who desired to speak—neither the Senator from New York (Mr. Hill) nor the Senator from New Jersey (Mr. McPherson), and he therefore calle... for the enforcement of the agreement. After debate he finally withdrew the call fo... a vote and the matter was postponed til... Tuesday at 4 p. m.

The President sent to the Senate to-day the name of George D. Johnston of Louisiana to be a civil service commissioner, vice Hugh S. Thompson, resigned.

The President has approved the senten... suspension in the case of Commander ... ham, recently tried by court-martial, a... there is no longer any block to promotions the navy.

At the opening of the proceedings th... Senate agreed to adjourn from to-day t... Tuesday next.

THE STRIKERS' MEETING.

Business Transacted This Morning by the Planing Mill Hands.

About 800 union and non-union planing mill workers were present this morning at union headquarters, corner Broadway and Biddle street, to discuss the situation with reference to the strike.

When the strike first began the local Planing-mill Workers' Union was only 400 strong, but since that time it is claimed that names of eighty-three non-union men have been added and President John Green stated to a POST-DISPATCH reporter this morning that pickets were being kept constantly on watch to report to union headquarters all planing mill workers arriving in the city in order that they might be looked after. In the event they were found to be non-union men and would not join the union they were furnished transportation and secured employment elsewhere.

Several cases were reported at the meeting of carpenters and brick masons being idle because of the lack of planing mill material as a result of the strike. Both sides seem determined and the strike promises to last some time.

ON CHANGE.

Grain.

Wheat—There was considerable pressure to sell at the opening, and with not much demand and a good many favoring factors the market declined ⅛c. Subsequently reacted on receivers elsewhere, July selling up ⅜c, but Aug. only gaining ⅛c. The close was firm at ⅛@⅜c below yesterday.

Fine weather for harvesting, reports from which were most satisfactory, receipts very full and a steady increase in the movement to market after this week looked for, with the new crop beginning to move, foreign advices generally of a bearish nature as regards both the markets—Liverpool lower—and crops and an increase of nearly 700,000 bu in Liverpool stock of flour and wheat since July 1. These were this morning's conditions that had a weakening effect. Some complaints of too much rain were heard from the Northwest, and there was talk of poor crops in Ohio. The clearances from four ports were 90,000 pkgs of flour and 219,000 bu of wheat, equivalent to 624,000 bu.

Recoveries elsewhere, with New York showing most strength with two days' holiday before them, checked the selling locally and a stronger tone developed. The late cables were generally lower, but domestic markets held up well and the close here was fairly firm.

FUTURES—July opened at 77⅛c sold to 76⅝@⅞c to 77⅛c to 76⅞c to 77⅛@⅛c, closing at 77⅛c. Aug. opened at 76⅛c, sold to 75⅞c to 76c, closing at 76c bid. Sept. sold at 76⅞c, closed at 76⅞c. Dec. opened at 80c, sold to 79¾c to 80c to 79⅞@⅞c, closing at 80@80⅛c asked.

SPOT GRADES—The export demand continued for No. 2 red, most purchases being for that purpose, though regular was ⅛c lower at 77c, local millers paying 77⅛c for St. L. 77⅛c for E. side. Other grades held about steady and were quiet. No. 3 red sold at 71c this and for E. side 71⅛c bid. No. 4 winter offered regular at 63⅛c, bid 62⅛c and for E. side 63c bid. Rejected sold in F at 57c and for St. L. 58c bid. No. 2 hard winter, 68c bid regular, 68⅛c for E side. No. 3 do regular offered at 65c, bid 63c; No. 2 spring regular at 68c, bid 66⅛c, and for Cdlt 67c bid; No. 3 do 60c bid; rejected do offered at 58c, bid 53⅛c.

Sales: No. 2 red—10 cars regular at 77c, 2 in St. L. at 77⅛c, 3,000 bu E. side at 77⅜c, 40,000 bu regular p. t. No. 3 red—2 cars in D. at 71c. Rejected winter—1 car in F. at 57c.

Late sales—Special bin—1 car No. grade and 1 rejected spring at 55c, rejected winter at 59c, 1 No. 3 red at 73c. Track East side—1 No. 4 winter at 67c. Sacks—15 ... at 72c.

SAMPLES—Receipts, 32 cars and 5,212 sacks. The offerings of new were of fine quality, most all of which was as good as No. 2. But millers preferred the old and obtained all they wanted of that, and were neglecting the new. Only one lot of 258 sacks sold at 77c. The balance was dumped and sold on grade. Old was in large supply and in good demand, both millers and shippers were free buyers at about ⅛c decline. ... market also sold off ⅛c this morning ... ther, declines elsewhere, including Liverpool, and the weakness in wheat. Receipts were light and reports from the crop were rather bad, as a rule. The buying was steady at the lower prices, and a firmer feeling developed.

Outside markets recovered from their early weakness, Chicago showing most strength, and Sept. advanced ⅝c, closing ⅛c above the price asked at close of yesterday.

FUTURES—July opened at 44⅜c, sold to 44⅞c, closing at 44⅜c asked. Sept. opened at 44⅜c, sold to 44⅜c to 45⅛c, closing at 45⅛c.

SPOT GRADES—Offerings small and so was the demand from the local and shipping buyers; no other inquiry. No. 2 sold ⅛c lower at 43⅛c and Gist asked for M.C. and D., bid 44⅛c for St.L., 44⅜c for C, 45c for Cdlt, 44⅜c for regular. No. 3 was off ⅛c at 38⅜c, Cdlt selling at 39c and for E Side 40c bid. No. 4 sold at 34c in Cdlt and offered regular at that, and 32½@33c bid for E Side, 33⅛c for F. No grade offered regular 30c and E side at 31c, no bid. No. 2 white sold St. L. at 49c and E. side at 49⅛c. No. 3 white at 46c regular, 47c E. side. No. 3 color offered at 44c, no bid.

Sales: No. 2—2 cars and 8,500 bu in F. at 44⅜c. No. 2 white—1 car in St. L. at 49c, 1 in U. and 1 E. side at 49⅛c. No. 3 white—1 car in St. L at 46c, 1 E Side at 47c. No. 3—4 cars in D and St. L at 38⅜c, 6 in Cdlt at 39c. No. 4—3 cars in Cdlt at 34c.

SAMPLES—Dull, as the demand was small. Sales: Special bin—2 cars no grade E. side at 30c, 1 no grade white at 37c, 2 No. 4 white E. side at 41c. On track—1 car no grade at 31⅛c, 1 choice No. 3 at 42c, 1 fancy do at 43c. East track—1 car No. 2 white at 51c. Sacked lots on orders 51@52c.

Oats—Speculation was again very small and but slight changes took place in price.

July sold at 30⅜c to 30⅛c, latter the same as yesterday's close, but Aug. sold at 29⅞c, offered late at 29⅞c, ⅛c decline. Sept. sold at 29⅞c, off to 29⅝c and up to 30c, which was asked at close.

SPOT GRADES—No. 2 offered in F. at 30⅛c, bid 30⅛c, and for E. side 30⅜c bid; No. 3 regular at 29⅛c, bid 28c; No. 4 at 28c, no bid.

A car No. 2 sold in F. at 30⅜c after call.

SAMPLES—Receipts, 35 cars. There was considerable offering and while the prices were unchanged there was less life to the demand. White and color grades were again in largest supply and best request. Northern and mixed, again slow sale, a large number of the offerings being carried over. Low grades in fair demand with little to be had.

Sales—Special bin—1 car No. 2 white at 33c, 2 poor do at 32⅛c, 1 No. 2 color, 1 fancy No. 3 white and 1 No. 2 Northern at 32c, 1 No. 2 color and 1 No. 2 northern at 31⅜c, 3 No. 3 white at 31⅛c, 1 do and 1 Northern 31⅛c, 2 No. 3 color at 31c, 2 poor do at 30⅛c, 2 No. 3 at 28c, 2 No. 4 at 27⅛c, 2 do at 27c, 1 no grade at 26c. Track this side—1 car mixed at 27c. Sacked lots on orders, 37@39c.

Rye—No trading, as nothing offered save some low grades and no demand for them.

Flour and Feed.

Flour—The market rules very quiet, and trade is being confined to a moderate demand for low grades, which however, are being bought at buyers' prices. Sales: In sacks—1 car at $2.40 per bbl, 245 sks unsound on p. t. In bbls—1 car unsound at $3.10, 300 bbls at $3.80, 1 car at $3.85 on East trk, 419 bbls and 4 cars, part at country point, on p. t.

Hay.

Receipts, 505 tons. Shipments, 20 tons. Dull and lower to sell. There was a general disposition shown on the part of sellers to accept all fair offers. Demand however, was slow, buyers seemingly not in want of anything, as low prices by no means increased the movement. Further declines are looked for by all interested.

Sales this side: Mixed—5 cars at $9, 2 do at $9.50. Clover mixed—1 choice at $12. Timothy—5 cars prime at $10, 2 strictly do at $10.50, 2 choice at $11, 1 strictly do at $11.80, 2 do at $12, 2 fancy at $12.50, 4 strictly do at $13, 1 do at $13.10, 1 do at $13.50; 2 gilt-edge at $14. LIVE STOCK.

Union Stock Yards.

Hogs—Receipts are about 20 car-loads—some 1,400 head. McBride & Son, Sedalia, sent 86 head of very choice, which brought $5.75. The general run was ordinary. The market was strong at about 10c advance for the best grades; the market is now 60@70c higher than a week ago, with excellent prospects for a continued advance. Lower grades are 25@40c above last week's quotations. Sales were:

60	197	5 75

Sheep—Arrivals are very light—about two loads. A consignment of 78 head was received from W. T. Farmer, Cyrene, Mo. Prices were practically unchanged from former quotations. A batch of stockers, averaging 97 pounds, sold at $3.38; 8 lambs, averaging 56 pounds, brought $5. Lambs seem in not quite so good a demand; they range from $4@5.75, according to quality and weight. Good to choice sheep are quoted $4.25@4.50; best grades, $4.50@4.75; common mixed to pretty good, $3.75@4.25. There is no demand for heavy fat ewes.

Native Cattle—Receipts are about 3 car loads, mostly cows and calves. Everything sold readily—prices generally indicating 25c per 100 advance over quotations at opening of the week and indicating 35c to 60c over figures of a week or ten days ago for good butcher's stuff. Cows and calves are a shade stronger, but are quite low as compared with the butcher's grades; at present prices they are unsatisfactory goods to handle. Sales were:

Southern Cattle—About ten cars were received—mostly Indian steers, with a few cows and heifers. There was a good local demand for butcher's stock, and sales were lively and prices were pretty strong. Quotations generally are 35c to 60c higher than a week ago. The principal sales were:

Horses—Receipts are unusually light, being barely nominal. Mr. Hake, the Superintendent reports a good inquiry for good driving horses, with a very scarce supply good nice smooth "blocks" would sell readily at good figures. There is also a steady local demand for good matched teams for coach purposes, and Mr. Hoke is filling an order for the East.

FOURTH OF JULY.

In accordance with the following notice, all department of the Union Stock Yards will be closed on July 4. There will be no market from Saturday afternoon until Tuesday forenoon:

ST. LOUIS, June 30, 1892.

The scales will close on Saturday, the 2d of July at 3 p.m. and will remain closed until Tuesday, July 5, at 8 a. m. DON PALMER, Superintendent.

AN ABATTOIR.

The management contemplates the erection, next fall or winter, of an abattoir for local butchers' use. An institution of the kind has long been a necessity. At present meat-shop men cannot kill their own meat without a slaughter-house and a slaughter-house license. It is believed that many of them, nevertheless, do considerable killing, but they do it surreptitiously and illicitly. It is believed that most of them would avail themselves of the privileges of the proposed abattoir, which will be furnished at a reasonable rate. When built it will be of a capacity to supply all probable demands for many years to come, and its capacity will, therefore, necessarily be very large. It will have the most approved slaughtering and packing conveniences, and will be a model of its kind; and the enterprise of the Union Stock Yards people justifies the prediction that it will be a worthy addition to the industries of the city.

SHORT STOPS.

Mr. Wright of Jacksonville, Ill., bought several car loads of stock sheep this week at $3.25@3.35, for the East.

Wheeler, Jones & Co. shipped a car load of sheep and a car load of pigs to Chicago yesterday.

A prominent dealer got no takers this morning to his wager of a suit of clothes that hogs would be $6 during next week.

The sheep market has been very unsatisfactory this week, but Maj. Jones has come to the rescue and has kept prices up.

Jake Siefried says: "Better put hogs up to $6 and have done with it."

Indications.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—A depression of considerable energy centers north of Montana, extends southward over the northern and central mountain regions with increased cloudiness and local showers. This disturbance is followed on the Gulf by an area of high barometer. The barometer has risen throughout the regions east of the Mississippi and continued over Florida. It is cool in Middle Atlantic, lower lake regions, and warmer in the northwest and Florida. Showers have prevailed in the southern, Middle States and fair weather in the central valleys, and the Northwest. Probably warmer weather will prevail in the States on the Atlantic Coast from North Carolina northward on Sunday. The temperature will rise gradually in the Ohio and Central Mississippi Valleys and Lake Regions. The following heavy rainfalls by inches are reported. Raleigh 1.1; Norfolk 1.22; Weston, W. Va., 1.07.

The rivers are above the danger line in feet and tenths, falling; La Crosse 0.6; Dubuque 0.4; Davenport 1.7; Keokuk 5.0; Helena 1.0; Vicksburg 5.4; New Orleans 3.2; Arkansas City 3.5.

For Missouri, fair, probably followed by local showers on Saturday, southerly winds.

MONEY.

Business at the banks was fair. The local demand for money continues light, but the movement to the country is increasing. Rates remain unchanged the majority of loans being made at 5 per cent on call and 6 per cent on time discounts.

Wall Street.

NEW YORK, July 1, 11 a. m.—The stock market differed all the way from its predecessors in character and the dullness in the list was contrasted with special activity and weakness in Chicago Gas and Burlington, though the latter declined only a fraction. The opening was made at insignificant changes from those of last evening and while a heavy tone was given the list by the weakness in Chicago Gas, the changes in quotations were hardly perceptible, Chicago Gas opening at 79⅝, was driven down to 78, and rallied slightly in the latter part of the hour. These movements constituted the only features and the market remained without change in its character, while Chicago Gas reached still lower figures. At 11 o'clock the market was dull and heavy at slight reactions below first prices.

Noon—Money on call is easy at 1½@2 per cent. Sterling exchange is quiet, but firm, with actual business at 4.87@4.87¼ for sixty-day bills and 4.88¼@½ for demand. Posted rates, 4.88@4.89½. The stock market exhibited a better temper after 11 o'clock, prices recovering in the general list, and there was a general movement. The dealings were more dull, however, and the movements possessed the usual significance. The market at noon was very dull and steady at close to first prices.

Hibernians' Excursion.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians had a meeting last night at their headquarters to arrange for a big excursion which will take place on the river July 4. An interesting programme is arranged for that day. There will be athletic sports, music and dancing. Two thousand people will attend. The steamboat War Eagle has been engaged to take the excursionists.

BAUER IS HERE.

The Aged Music Teacher and His Victim Brought Back From Jefferson City.

Leopold Bauer, the aged music professor, who was arrested in Jefferson City, charged with criminally assaulting Nellie Henthorn, a child but 14 years of age, was brought to the city last evening by Detective Zeigler. The girl also returned and was turned over to Police Matron Harris. If the investigation shows that the girl's parents are not fit persons to take care of her, she will be sent to the House of Good Shepherd.

Bauer said that the girl did not resist his first advances and that he considered her as guilty of wrongdoing as himself. He also said the Henthorns pushed the girl on him, and that he did not feel himself obliged to marry her. Still, he might consent to make the child his wife. He told Detective Zeigler on the way back that he did not know his victim was in a delicate condition.

The contract which Bauer seems to think justifies his brutal treatment of the child is as follows:

ST. LOUIS, June 20, 1892.—This is to certify that we, the undersigned, parents of Nellie Henthorn, who is at this time under legal age, fully agree and consent for her to go and travel, stay, live and work with Prof. Leopold Bauer of this city, provided, always, that he treat her like one of the family and pay her a monthly salary of $6. Our hands and seal this 20th day of June, 1892.

His
WILLIAM X HENTHORN, Father.

Miss Agnes Henthorn, James Henthorn, witnesses.

It was drawn up by Bauer before he started to Kansas City with the girl.

Mr. Wm. Hinthorne had a long talk with his daughter, Nellie, at the Four Courts this morning and decided to take her back home instead of placing her in the House of the Good Shepherd as was at first intended. "She wants to go back home," he said in conversation with a POST-DISPATCH reporter, "and I think that is the best place for her. If she gets sick we will get a doctor for her and make Bauer pay the bill."

"Are you going to prosecute Bauer?"

"Yes, if he don't settle, I will."

"How much do you want?"

"That is left entirely in the hands of Mr. Harvey, my attorney."

"Do you think there will be any prosecution?"

"No, I don't think so. I think Mr. Harvey will get him to settle."

Mr. Harvey, however, denies that there is to be any settlement of the case with money. He says that he became Mr. Hinthorne's attorney for the purpose of prosecuting the man who ruined his daughter and that he will send Bauer to the penitentiary if he can get a verdict against him.

Bauer seems to be very hopeful of getting out of the scrape by the payment of a few thousand dollars.

ROUSTABOUTS GIVE UNDER.

They Are Willing to Go to Work on the Anchor Line's Terms.

So far as the roustabout factor in the Levee strike is concerned the indications to-day point to a complete victory for the Anchor Line company. A number of the striking roustabouts give under this morning and could not even then get work as the Anchor Line Co. had more help at their disposal than they could use. The names of a number of men were listed, however, who, it is said, will be given work as soon as possible.

The Marine Engineers still hold firm, however, and avow a strong determination to hold out. They are still figuring on getting two boats to put in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade to compete with the Anchor Line Co., which may be accepted as conclusive that they have satisfied themselves that they cannot force the Anchor Line Co. to terms by interfering with the employment of help. Thus far nothing definite has been done with reference to securing boats, which move, if successful, would not only enable the Engineers' Union to interfere materially with the profits of the Anchor Line, but would also give the members considerable additional leverage in the way of aiding in the support of a continuation of the strike, as well as furnish employment to a number who are now out. It looks now as though it would require the boats to turn the tide in the engineers' favor.

MARXER FOUND GUILTY.

Private Watchman Treinen's Slayer Convicted of Murder in the First Degree.

The jury before whom Frank Marxer was tried in the Criminal Court yesterday for the murder of Michael Treinen, an Iron Mountain private watchman, last September, returned a verdict last evening, after being out about three hours, finding the prisoner guilty of murder in the first degree. The verdict was a big surprise to nearly all who had heard the evidence and the Court's instructions to the jury, as it was generally supposed that the result would either be a hung jury or an acquittal. On the first ballot taken by the jury the vote stood six for conviction and six for acquittal, but in the discussion which followed the six for conviction succeeded in drawing the others over to their side, and when Judge Normile returned from dinner and re-opened court at 7 o'clock, the jury was ready to return a verdict of guilty. Ex-Gov. Johnson was never more surprised in his life than he was when Clerk (Judge read out the verdict, and he at once announced his intention of moving for a new trial. The jurors were all young men with one exception and eight of them were Germans. The list is as follows: Henry Bergmeyer, Wm. Cadwallader, Allen H. Denniston, Joseph Englert, John Foerstel, Herman F. Gieselmann, Henry W. Helge, Morgan Kuehne, Samuel R. Lewis, Charles Niemetz, Henry Ringstmeier and Edward L. Sappington.

As the court gave no instructions for murder in the second degree or manslaughter, the jury had either to acquit or find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree. The strongest evidence against Marxer was his own confession, made to the police directly after his arrest, that his reason for returning with Philip Lahm to the scene of the clubbing just given him was to see if the private watchman was still there, the conclusion drawn from that admission by the attorneys for the State and evidently also by the jury being that he returned to the freight yards for the express purpose of shooting Treinen. Lahm's testimony was that the walk to the freight yards or in that direction was made at his own suggestion.

The instructions of the court seemed to be favorable to the defendant, as the jury were told that the river front where the clubbing was done was public property, and that Private Watchman Treinen committed an unlawful act in using his club on Marxer, and also that they should acquit the defendant if they believed that he considered his life in danger when he saw Treinen put his hand in his pocket, even though Treinen did not have his pistol with him at the time.

THE NOLAND CASE.

Twenty Days to File an Appeal to the Supreme Court.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 1.—Ex-State Treasurer Noland, by his attorney, to-day filed in division No. 2 of the Supreme Court a motion for a re-hearing and a transfer of the case to court in banc. This was overruled. The court was then asked a stay of execution for twenty days until a motion could be filed before a judge of the Supreme Court of the United States praying that a writ of error lie against the State Supreme Court upon the plea of a Federal question being involved, which request was granted. Mr. Charles C. Noland, the attorney present, said that one of the evidences presented to the court to prove peculation on the part of the ex-State Treasurer was a check drawn in Kansas City made payable to one R. E. Wilson and cashed in St. Louis; that Ed Noland should not have been tried in Cole County for this offense, and that this alone raises a federal question in that it is a violation of constitutional right to try a man where the offense is not committed. This is a last effort on the part of the attorneys of the defaulting Treasurer to save him from the penitentiary. It is the opinion of Ed's friends here that it is but a fight against time.

New York excursion tickets via Vandalia and Pennsylvania lines will be good to return until Sept. 15, 1892.

LABOR NEWS.

Iron and Glass Workers Taking an Enforced Holiday.

PITTSBURG, July 1.—When the clocks tolled twelve strokes last night and the 1st of July made its appearance, nearly 150,000 workmen who had toiled almost incessantly the past year were out of employment. The scale in force during the past year expired at midnight and in all mills, the proprietors of which have not signed the scale for the ensuing year, work ceased entirely at that time.

Another class of workmen accepted their release with comparative pleasure. These were the employes of the various glass factories throughout the United States. On the last day of June of each year the glass factories all shut down according to custom, for from four to eight weeks to make repairs, lay in stock, etc. The men employed in these places look forward to this annual shutdown with great satisfaction. The glass-house workers are only idle temporarily; and resume their old positions at the next fire.

It has also been the custom for several years past for the iron and steel masters to adopt a similar policy to the glass manufacturers, and they close their works the first Monday in July. The number of iron and steel mills that closed down last night is estimated at upwards of 400. There are 460 rolling mills in the United States, 425 of which have trains of rolls connected with their establishments. Twenty-five or fifty others have been idle for some time past. Of the 400 in operation until last night, nearly 300 are situated west of the Alleghany Mountains. Quite a number of these have signed the scale, leaving about 250 mills which are at present lying idle. These employ upwards of 100,000 men. The number of factories which are not in a position to ... is placed at 200. Affairs were quiet at Ho... stead and in this city to-day. The str... were filled with idle men, but the best of ... der was maintained. There were no sign... tures to the scale since last night. Th... conference called by the manufacturers is h... session this afternoon and strong hopes of a compromise are entertained as it is generally believed that each side is willing to go a short way in the direction of making concessions.

A THOUSAND OUT.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 1.—About one thousand employes of Hughes & Patterson and Gautbert, McFadden & Caskey quit work last night and the two rolling mills are shut down on account of their refusal to sign the scale.

SHUT DOWN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 1.—The Premier Steel Works, employing 300 hands, shut down last night, the company refusing to accept the wage scale.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It is manufactured as a powder, which can be given in a glass of beer, a cup of coffee or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor habit to exist.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS AND IMITATIONS.—Let it be clearly understood that Golden Specific is the only scientific medicine for the cure of Drunkenness or Intemperance in any stage.

Any preparation claiming to accomplish this same result is spurious and worthless, and those who buy it simply throw away their money, as they will in the end discover. GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., Prop'rs, CINTI, O. 48-page book of particulars free. To be had of M. W. ALEXANDER, 516 Olive st., WOLFF-WILSON DRUG CO., 6th and Wash. av., J. S. MERRELL DRUG CO., 620 Wash. av. SORE THROATS.

Sore throat is the cause of more than half the trouble that comes from contagious diseases. The germs of these maladies such as scarlet fever, diphtheria, mumps, measles, smallpox and the like float in the air. They can be taken into the human system without danger, if they do not find an abraded surface. If they do, they enter the blood and swarm in millions. It is well known that diphtheria can be taken from a wound on the skin on the body. It is particularly noticeable that when such a malady as diphtheria rages it always attacks people after they have caught a slight cold. When you take cold, therefore, and your throat is sore get a bottle of REID'S GERMAN COUGH & KIDNEY CURE at once and take it freely. If your druggist will not order it for you write to us. Small bottles 25 cents, large one... cents.

Important Mexican Decree.

John F. Cahill, the Mexican Consul, has just received an official dispatch signed by President Diaz, to the effect that from July 1 to Sept. 30 of this year corn, corn meal and beans introduced from the United States are exempted from Custom-house duties. The law is issued from the Treasury Department by Hon. Matias Romero, the recently appointed Secretary of the Mexican Treasury, who has represented Mexico as Minister at Washington for the past twelve years. All interested are invited to send prices of corn, corn meal and beans to the Mexican Consul for transmission to the Government.

Big Blaze on Gratiot Street.

The fire alarm about 3 o'clock this morning from Rock Springs was for a fire at 4141 Gratiot street, a two-story brick building, owned and occupied by George Meyer, who had a bakery on the first floor and resided with his family on the second floor. The building was pretty well burned out, the damage amounting to about $3,500. The furniture was damaged about $500 and forty-five barrels and seventy-five sacks of flour worth $500 were burned up. Mr. Meyer had $8,800 insurance on the house and contents. One of the firemen of Engine Company, No. 29, succeeded in saving $450 in greenbacks on the second floor of the building. An adjoining frame house belonging to Mr. Meyer, but used as a butcher shop by Nich. Tenenbach, was damaged about $20.

Two Brothers Meet on a Train for the First Time in Fourteen Years.

T. W. Roberts of St. Louis and Charles Roberts of Chicago, two brothers who had not seen or heard from each other for fourteen years and each of whom believed the other to be dead, met a couple of days ago on the Jacksonville Southeastern train. Charles Roberts was the engineer of the train and his brother who was a passenger by the merest accident saw him. They instantly recognized each other and their meeting was a most affectionate one. From his brother, Mr. T. W. Roberts learned for the first time of the death of their father and also that $8,500 was due both brothers from the estate. They left last night for Cincinnati, O., to claim their interest in the estate.
